Belleville Kathleen Leonard,2016-12-05 Belleville is a coming of age story based on the life of the authors own mother Margaret who grew up in southern Illinois This book tells the tale of her and her extended familys colorful life during the struggle and the simple lifestyle of the Depression era and on into the distress and prosperity of the Second World War

A Primer for Teaching World History Antoinette Burton,2012 This book offers principles to consider when creating a world history syllabus it prompts a teacher rather than aiming for full world coverage to pick an interpretive focus and thread it through the course It will be used by university faculty graduate students and high school teachers who are teaching world history for the first time or want to rethink their approach to teaching the subject

High School Memoirs: a Journey in Surrealism Sean C. Cusack,2007-11-14 Synopsis High School Memoirs A Journey in Surrealism is a tear jerking hilarious ride for a less than ordinary High School student who battles bullies and librarians to become King of the Classroom Set in a small Catholic High School on the north side of Chicago author Sean Cusack takes us on a surrealistic journey through four fun filled years of triumph and tragedy in this unique epic The journey begins with Sean Cusack entering St Bernadin High School in August of 1995 as a very young and innocent Freshman student He focuses on several life changing experiences in his infant days of High School that change him forever Innocence Lost traces the steps Sean Cusack took that ultimately lead him on a path toward frequent battles with students and the school faculty and Administration As a Sophomore The Ride most certainly takes us on a ride through fights vandalism and verbal debacles that continued to steer the vengeful ship that Sean Cusack had been building since a Freshman He now had become the ships Captain as it set sail The Ride takes us through many strange and mysterious encounters that add more of a surrealist element to this budding melodrama and comedic satire Sean Cusacks roses bud Junior Year in Forever Remembered when he becomes a charismatic hero and leader of a rebellious group of students that pillage and plunder the school and faculty in wild and zany antics Forever Remembered embodies the humorous and more imaginative side of Sean Cusack as the journey through High School becomes more surreal Senior Year wraps up the trials and tribulations that Sean Cusack had endured thus far in his High School experience culminating into one person after years of battling the Defunct Administration He is molded by evil as the rebellious youth becomes totally hellbent on crippling the school In the end he loses friends respect from teachers but most of all he loses faith in his cause yet ends his High School experience with a fantastical and triumphant bow Sean Cusack proves that not all High School stories are the same in this turbulent and chaotic autobiography High School Memoirs A Journey in Surrealism chronicles a strange and unique history that is truly a step above the rest

Connecting the Dots in World History, A Teacher's Literacy Based Curriculum Chris Edwards, 2015-11-06 In his previously written articles and books Chris Edwards has argued that Teaching should be considered a field that is separate from both the field of Education and from the content area fields Teaching is a field which synthesizes content and method for classroom application All of the other major intellectual fields have a canon of works which practitioners can learn from and add to but Teaching does not The Connecting the Dots in World History A Teacher s Literacy Based Curriculum series changes this by showing how effective a teacher generated curriculum can be These books can inspire other teachers to create their own curriculums and inspire a change in the way that the public views teachers and teaching Mississippi's Black Cotton John Obee,MacArthur Cotton,2025-05 The literature of the civil rights movement is replete with stories about the major actors in the movement including for example Martin Luther King but there is little focus on the MacArthur Cottons of the era the young Black men and women who at great risk to their physical and mental health chose to become involved in the movement when so many others chose not to Without these young Black people there would have been no movement and what was accomplished with the Civil Rights Acts of the 1960s would never have happened This was particularly true in Mississippi the most repressive of all fifty states and one that had sponsored state terrorism to ensure that white supremacy reigned supreme Despite having no real reason to believe that change could happen MacArthur Cotton and those like him believed that they had to act In MacArthur s case his actions were in the tradition of his activist family and he relates his involvement with many of the important figures in the Mississippi movement such as Medgar Evers and Fannie Lou Hamer Importantly he also honors others like him who are largely unknown to history such as the Greenes and McGees in Greenwood who were waging their own war against their oppressive state While having been imprisoned many times and having lived in a constant state of terror Cotton persisted as a foot soldier in a war and as with all veterans of wars was left with emotional and psychological scars Despite the toll that it took on him as a person however he remains a committed activist to this day The 7 Best Things Smart Teens Do John Friel,Linda D. Friel,2011-04-01 In therapists John and Linda Friel gave parents an easy to understand guide to overcome the seven worst mistakes even good parents make while raising children Now they ve written a book for teens based on the same formula it includes the seven worst things even smart and outwardly successful teens do and shows teens how they can change these behaviors and assure their success in life as they grow towards adulthood This book was written expressly for teenagers as a unique roadmap into adulthood It was designed to stimulate the brain as well as the heart because teenagers who listen to both can eventually negotiate adolescence successfully It will appeal to teenagers who like to think wonder question and challenge as well as to teenagers who feel that they haven t quite figured out this life thing The Friels show teens the seven things they need to do in order to overcome common roadblocks they face or will face These are Become competent don t expect to have self esteem without becoming competent Master your feelings don t let your feelings run the show Break the silence don t silently scream instead of making yourself known Get healthy power don t avoid learning about power Face the serious stuff don t hide the really important things you re experiencing Find an identity don t avoid the struggle to find yourself Learn to stake out the extremes don t live only in the extremes Written in clear straightforward language and including many interesting and colorful story interludes this book is an easy to use powerful tool for all teens Directory of Distance Learning Opportunities Modoc Press, Inc.,2003-02-28 This book provides an overview of current K 12 courses and programs offered in the United States as correspondence study or via such electronic delivery systems as satellite cable or the Internet The
