(399) Let Us Break Bread Together
Jesus, at Your Holy Table
As He Gathered at His Table

WORSHIP LEADER: As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take and eat it;
this is My body."

WORSHIP PARTICIPANT: Then He took a cup, and after giving thanks, He gave it to them and said, "Drink from it, all of you. For this is My blood that establishes the covenant;
it is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins."

WL: "But I tell you, from this moment I will not drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it in a new way in My Father's kingdom with you." After singing psalms, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

(Matthew 26:26-30)

Christian Worship Edwin Zackrison,Melvin Campbell,2003-08 Need some revitalization of your worship service with more involvement on the part of the congregations Or do you need more focus on the sermon subjects This book may well be your answer The 53 responsive readings in the book differ from the traditional approach Here you may find the audience cast in various roles such as in drama where they will respond as a character in a story such as in readers theatre Good reading is easy to achieve as in choral reading and the audience gets to answer and suggest corporately as in traditional responsive readings The audience may play the fool the pharisee the publican God the believer or the skeptic At all times we worked at keeping the responses short so that the long monotony of untrained reading would be avoided and a minimum of rehearsal instruction would be needed to have maximum expression Both youth and adults have enjoyed these responsive readings We think your congregation will as well Responsive Readings from the Old and New Testaments ,1896 Responsive
