Tipping The Velvet A Novel:

Tipping the Velvet Sarah Waters, 2012 Tipping the Velvet is a wonderfully lush sensuous and bawdy novel set in the music halls of the late 19th century Nan gets to meet her heroine Kitty a male impersonator The two begin a double act and their affection for each other deepens

Tipping the Velvet Sarah Waters, 2002 Tipping the Velvet Sarah Waters, 2000-05-01 Erotic and absorbing Written with startling power The New York Times Book Review Nan King an oyster girl is captivated by the music hall phenomenon Kitty Butler a male impersonator extraordinaire treading the boards in Canterbury Through a friend at the box office Nan manages to visit all her shows and finally meet her heroine Soon after she becomes Kitty's dresser and the two head for the bright lights of Leicester Square where they begin a glittering career as music hall stars in an all singing and dancing double act At the same time behind closed doors they admit their attraction to each other and their affair begins

Negotiating Sexual Idioms Marie-Luise Kohlke, Luisa Orza, 2008 Negotiating Sexual Idioms Image Text Performance affords new theoretical approaches and insights into the complexity of sexual discourse pervading contemporary cultures exploring sexuality's role in dominant conceptualisations of self and society in patterns of political belonging and exclusion and in societal transformations Opening with a substantial critical introduction this collection of twelve essays and creative pieces contributes to significant current debates regarding sexual rights and their violation queer theory and identity politics sexual fantasy formations and strategies of pleasure and the celebration of sexual diversity topics explored through a variety of disciplinary frameworks including gender and film studies religious philosophy neo Victorian and postcolonial literature sociology pornography and performance art The volume positions the subjects of sex and sexuality as crucial to our ethical understanding of the human both in individual and communal terms exploring how claims for sexual subjectivity and citizenship are formulated and the entitlements they entail The analytical insights offered signal important new directions for critical engagement with the socio political construction of sexuality and its strategic deployment within the cultural imaginary Designed to appeal equally to scholars students and general readers Negotiating Sexual Idioms will prove essential reading for those interested in multi disciplinary approaches to reading sex and sexuality within inter cultural contexts from the early modern period to the present day

Youth Subcultures in Postwar and Contemporary Fiction Nick Bentley, 2025-04-30 This book offers a unique interdisciplinary examination of how youth subcultures have been articulated and constructed in selected fiction from the post war period to the twenty first century It provides a theoretical underpinning for the analysis of subcultures and scenes in literary fiction identifying approaches set against key theories from subcultural studies sociology and criminology as well as paying close attention to issues of literary form genre and narrative technique As well as identifying an overlooked body of work in postwar and contemporary fiction it shows how literary fiction can offer a distinctive contribution to our understanding of youth and marginalized cultures It offers close analysis of a range of novels organized around key themes and contexts including teenagers Teds and jazz scenes in the 1950s Beat writing and the counterculture punk fiction dystopian and cyberpunk fiction as well as the examination of works that foreground class race gender and sexuality

The Victorians in the Rearview Mirror Simon Joyce, 2007
 Simon Joyce examines heritage culture contemporary politics and the neo Dickensian novel to offer a more affirmative assessment of the Victorian legacy one that lets us imagine a model of social interconnection and interdependence that has come under threat in today's politics and culture

Adaptation in Contemporary Culture Rachel Carroll, 2009-11-30
 A comprehensive interdisciplinary collection offering a survey of adaptation of literary texts across media including animation film TV fan fiction biopics and music video

Studies in the Victorian and Neo-Victorian Novel Adrian Radu, 2024-02-29
 Readers of the nineteenth century novel expected literature to be a form journalism and fictional history They wanted to read about easily identifiable situations with a chronological straightforward and easily discernible development of plot familiar backgrounds and credible characters About a hundred years later the Victorian novel became the great tradition omnipresent and reliable However today the age and the context are different and novels need more substance including such themes as memory race and empire sex and science spectrality and the heritage industry or key issues like gender sexuality and postmodernism All these elements are considered Neo Victorian which in spite of their novelty do point to a certain Victorian anchor This volume contains ten studies the substance of which is the analysis of novels that according to their date of publication are products of the Victorian and Neo Victorian periods as defined above The authors investigate and discuss Victorian roots and characteristics preserved or recycled Victorian themes Neo Victorian characters and motifs or any other characteristics that may label them as Victorian or Neo Victorian products

London, Queer Spaces and Historiography in the Works of Sarah Waters and Alan Hollinghurst Júlia Braga Neves, 2022-10-07
 Queer spaces are crucial for the construction of LGBTQ communities as they constitute places where queer subjects can create political social and affective alliances Júlia Braga Neves shows how these spaces are pivotal for the representation of queer history in the fictional works by the British authors Sarah Waters and Alan Hollinghurst whose characters and plots are articulated through and within London's sexual geographies Considering the intersection between gender sexuality and class this study engages with spatial queer feminist and Marxist theories as a means to reflect on London queer historiography and the relationship between subject and urban space

The Woman's Historical Novel D. Wallace, 2004-11-19
 The historical novel has been one of the most important forms of women's reading and writing in the twentieth century yet it has been consistently under rated and critically neglected In the first major study of British women writers use of the genre Diana Wallace tracks its development across the century She combines a comprehensive survey with detailed readings of key writers including Naomi Mitchison Georgette Heyer Sylvia Townsend Warner Margaret Irwin Jean Plaidy Mary Renault Philippa Gregory and Pat Barker

Sarah Waters and Contemporary Feminisms Adele Jones, Claire O'Callaghan, 2016-07-26
 Sarah Waters and Contemporary Feminisms presents ten readings of Sarah Waters's fictions published to date in relation to feminism and contemporary feminist theory The analysis offered in the collection investigates how Waters engages with recent debates on women and gender and how her writings reflect the different concerns of contemporary feminist theories In particular the collection includes new and innovative readings of how Waters's novels address issues of patriarchy female confinement madness and misogyny exploitation and oppression repression and subordination abortion marriage and spinsterhood alongside passionate portrayals of female agency desire aesthetics female sexual expression and of course lesbianism

Re-creating the Past: the Neo-Victorian Meaning in Sarah Waters' Neo-Victorian Novels Ariadna SERRANO BAILÉN, 2014-05-09 Desde un punto de vista cuantitativo los estudios culturales ocupan sin duda un espacio menor Sin embargo los tres artículos aquí presentados dan cuenta de la variedad de perspectivas posibles dentro de este apartado No solo abarcan estos estudios diferentes géneros literarios sino que recorren diferentes épocas históricas desde el renacimiento hasta nuestros días As destaca la recepción de la obra de Shakespeare adaptada a los principios estéticos del siglo XVIII España la aparición de un problema tan actual como la violencia doméstica en el teatro y el cine de mediados del siglo XX o la vinculación de posicionamientos contraculturales de la generación Beat en la música de Bob Dylan Todos estos estudios exploran pues la relación entre las prácticas culturales la vida diaria y los contextos históricos en los que se producen Como suele ser habitual gran parte de las contribuciones presentadas en este volumen se centran en el estudio del aprendizaje del inglés como segunda lengua una de las principales preocupaciones del sistema educativo español en estos momentos tanto en la etapa preuniversitaria como universitaria Es lógico por tanto que estos jóvenes investigadores muestren interés por un asunto que afecta a un elevado número de estudiantes en la sociedad actual Los estudios van desde el análisis de libros de texto utilizados en la enseñanza del inglés para comprobar si estos textos adoptan correctamente las cuatro destrezas básicas listening speaking speaking writing al aprendizaje de la lengua desde el punto de vista de una aproximación comunicativa hasta la relación de la prosodia y la utilización de audífonos por parte de personas sordas o la percepción que tienen los estudiantes de la pronunciación del inglés Como se ve problemas muy cercanos a la realidad pedagógica Las contribuciones literarias se centran exclusivamente en autores del siglo XX incluida una adaptación al Londres actual de una obra de Shakespeare pero recorren todos los géneros literarios así como el cine En general estos estudios se fijan en obras concretas y las analizan desde perspectivas culturales sociológicas o psicológicas Podemos encontrar autores consagrados como Theodore Roethke y Ted Hughes o escritoras más localistas como la canadiense Jeannette Armstrong y sobresalen miradas postmodernistas tanto en el ámbito de la novela como del cine En definitiva se trata de una selección de artículos altamente prometedora que supone un claro desafío al futuro de los Estudios Ingleses Por todo ello hay que felicitar a todos los participantes y sobre todo a los editores de este volumen que han demostrado una enorme capacidad de trabajo y entusiasmo

Consuming History Jerome de Groot, 2016-02-08 Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media

Victorian Dress in Contemporary Historical Fiction Danielle Mariann Dove,2023-10-19 Victorian Dress in Contemporary Historical Fiction is the first full length study to investigate and attend to the deeply suggestive and highly symbolic iterations of Victorian women s dress in the contemporary cultural imagination Drawing upon a range of popular and less well studied neo Victorian novels published between 1990 and 2014 as well as their Victorian counterparts 19th century illustrative material and extant Victorian garments Danielle Dove explores the creative possibilities afforded by dress and fashion as gendered sites of agency and affect Focusing on the relationship between texts and textiles she demonstrates how dress is central to the narrativization re formulation and re fashioning of the material past in the present In its examination of the narrative trajectories lively vitalities and material entanglements that accrue to and originate from dress in the neo Victorian novel this study brings a fresh approach to reading Victorian sartorial culture For researchers and students of Victorian and neo Victorian studies dress history material culture and gender studies this volume offers a rich resource with which to illuminate the power of fashion in fiction

Authenticity Patrick Finney,2020-04-28 The pursuit of authenticity is a contemporary obsession From hipster fixations on artisan coffee and vintage clothing through to the electoral success of supposedly unspun populist politicians like Donald Trump a yearning for the real pervades our culture Yet while highly prized and desired authenticity is also profoundly elusive and contested This volume stages a wide ranging interdisciplinary interrogation of the concept with case studies ranging from collective memory of the Second World War through the historical fiction of Sarah Waters to the confessional art of

Tracey Emin With contributors drawn from memory studies cultural history English literature theatre studies and art criticism it explores how authenticity is in play in diverse practices of reading remembering and performing The chapters demonstrate that authenticity has no single stable definition but is rather invoked in very diverse ways both descriptively and prescriptively in many diverse contexts They also make clear that it is not an inherent quality but the product of orchestration performance and inter subjective negotiation This book was originally published as a special issue of Rethinking History Lesbians in Television and Text after the Millennium R. Beirne, 2008-09-15 Taking up such issues as mainstreaming the male gaze and female masculinity this book puts forward provocative readings of little explored texts and offers new insights into the contemporary representation of lesbians The Methuen Drama Book of Queer Monologues Scottee, 2018-06-28 The first collection of its kind The Oberon Book of Queer Monologues chronicles over one hundred years of queer and trans performance Combining stage plays with spoken word and performance art this anthology features over forty extracts from some of the most exciting stage works in the English speaking world It is an essential tool for artists seeking monologues for auditions or training a comprehensive guide through the hidden histories of queer theatre and a celebration of the LGBTQIA community Curated by award winning artist Scottee it features work from artists including Neil Bartlett Mae West Emma Donoghue Split Britches Chris Goode and Travis Alabanza Angela Carter Linden Peach, 2009-09-09 This revised new edition reviews Carter s novels in the light of recent critical developments and offers entirely new perspectives on her work There is now extended discussion of Carter s most widely studied novels including The Passion of New Eve and Nights at the Circus and discussion of the long essay The Sadeian Woman This revised new edition reviews Carter s novels in the light of recent critical developments and offers entirely new perspectives on her work There is now extended discussion of Carter s most widely studied novels including The Passion of New Eve and Nights at the Circus and discussion of the long essay The Sadeian Woman A Companion to British Literature, Volume 4 Robert DeMaria, Jr., Heesok Chang, Samantha Zacher, 2013-12-13 A Companion to British Literature Victorian and Twentieth Century Literature 1837 2000
