a review and analysis of joint and service specific leadership doctrine Through this review the author examines what the military s doctrinal position is on leadership and information management and identifies the doctrine s leadership skill shortfalls The study also places these leadership skills in the context of the Joint Operating Environment JOE to determine how they will answer the challenges of the anticipated dynamic combat environment The study concludes with an extended description of those leadership skills required to lead effectively in the information age It is clear that the U S Armed Forces must develop new leadership doctrine that reflects the skills needed to dominate adversaries in the information age

Tyranny of the Moment Thomas Hylland Eriksen,2001-08-20 The turn of the millennium is characterised by exponential growth in everything related to communication from the internet and email to air traffic Tyranny of the Moment deals with the most perplexing paradoxes of this new information age Who would have expected that apparently timesaving technology results in time being scarcer than ever And has this seemingly limitless access to information led to confusion rather than enlightenment Eriksen argues that slow time private periods where we are able to think and correspond without interruption is now one of the most precious resources we have Questioning Technology with Jacques Ellul David W. Gill,Lisa Richmond,2025-10-07 Twenty first century technology is an ever expanding powerful force in virtually every aspect of human life and every corner of the globe So much of modern technology has resulted in positive improvements in communication work health and other domains Technology s promises and possibilities for the future are often glowing But it is one thing for technology to function as a tool serving human purpose and flourishing and quite another for it to be granted the position of unquestioned master All technologies deserve to be questioned What are their costs trade offs and potential or real negative impact And how do we create limits and controls for technological invasion when these would be wise and necessary Questioning Technology with Jacques Ellul addresses these questions in both the big picture and in their relevance to specific arenas such as art politics work and religion with voices from not just the academy but also the workplace and society Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1836 Union Seminary Magazine ,1892
