Focus On: 100 Most Popular Station Wagons Wikipedia contributors, Focus On: 100 Most Popular Sedans Wikipedia contributors, GCSE Maths David Bowles, Paul Metcalf, 2002 Written specifically for the Foundation and Intermediate tier GCSE for the AQA Modular GCSE Specification B This clearly presented book will help all students looking to achieve a grade C in GCSE maths An ideal stand alone resource for students doing the GCSE course in one year including students resitting modules Focus On: 100 Most Popular Compact Cars Wikipedia contributors, In Deep Water Michael Brennan, 2019-09-13 Irish Water was set up in 2013 to introduce the most ambitious water metering programme in the world The plan was to get Irish people to finally pay to upgrade a nineteenth century water system The water metering programme began in August 2013 and was carried out at breakneck speed However it did not go to plan and the issue of water charges divided Ireland There were nationwide demonstrations and confrontations in housing estates involving water meter contractors garda and water charge protesters The programme ended in political disaster with a humiliated government having to send out one million refunds With access to unpublished documents and interviews with the key personalities on both sides In Deep Water provides a blow by blow account of how it all went wrong The rows at cabinet The warnings that went unheeded The water women The smartphone wielding protesters And the minister who threatened to reduce people's water to a trickle Compulsively readable and fast paced In Deep Water gives an inside view of the controversy that divided Ireland A Comparative Analysis of Taxes and CO2 Emissions from Passenger Cars in the Nordic Countries Henrik Duer, Camilla Rosenhagen, Nordic Council of Ministers, 2011 The report discusses how economic instruments can be used to reduce CO2 emissions from passenger cars in the Nordic countries The analysis indicate that the registration tax and the annual circulation tax can contribute to a reduction in the average CO2 emission from new cars company car schemes in the Nordic countries provide incentives for larger cars and increased driving because of subsidies and this has long term effect as a large share of new cars are registered as company cars but are used as private cars most of their lives CO2 differentiated taxes can provide incentives to consumers to purchase CO2 efficient cars targeted broader packages which besides providing tax incentives also offer advantages to more environmentally friendly cars can be more effective than general tax increases transparency of targets and instruments is crucial for a large diffusion of CO2 efficient cars Flexible Query Answering Systems Henrik L. Larsen, Januss Kacprzyk, Slawomir Zadrozny, Troels Andreasen, Henning Christiansen, 2012-08-27 This volume constitutes the proceedings of the Fourth International Conference on Flexible Query Answering Systems FQAS 2000 held in Warsaw Poland on October 25 28 2000 The FQAS conference has been the premier conference focusing on one of key issues that the information society faces namely that of providing easy flexible intuitive access to information for everybody In targeting this issue the conference draws on several research areas such as databases querying information retrieval knowledge representation soft computing cyberspace multimedia systems

human computer interaction etc FQAS 2000 has been preceded by the extremely successful FQAS 94 FQAS 96 and FQAS 98 conferences all held in Roskilde Denmark The present conference provides a unique opportunity for researchers developers and practitioners to explore new ideas and approaches in a multidisciplinary forum As a metaphor for flexible query answering we may consider a human intermediary who has expertise in the topic of the query and is experienced in identifying the user's information needs and answering the needs from the available information resources The use of knowledge on relevant contexts available information resources etc enables the expert to respond rather precisely to the needs though the query per se may be imprecise incomplete etc Thus a key issue for flexible query answering system is to obtain maintain represent and utilize such knowledge This comprises domain knowledge and metaknowledge its representation and organization in ontologies terminologies etc

Sound and Safe Karin Bijsterveld, Eefje Cleophas, Stefan Krebs, Gijb Mom, 2014 This book traces the full history of noise in and around cars shows how we created auditory privacy in our cars even though they were highly noisy things at the beginning of the twentieth century It is about the sounds of car engines tires wipers blinkers warning signals in car audio systems and ultimately about how we became used to listen while driving

...in search of THE HEALING PLACE D D Murray McGavin MD, 2024-08-06 MARTIN FAIR A wonderfully easy read something of a rollercoaster ride It draws you in evocative detailed and engaging Excitement comes rushing off the page as you see God at work in Murray's own life and in so many places throughout the book ALASTAIR PETRIE I strongly recommend in search of THE HEALING PLACE for all leaders and all readers a blueprint for life Murray McGavin is clearly a champion for all people in all nations A treasure of medical skill not only about physical sight but also a compelling wake up call for spiritual insight A timely publication SANDY MILLAR This is no ordinary biography At one level a fascinating and inspiring story of one man his family and a life lived to the full At a deeper level it is clear that Murray's whole life and approach to every situation as a senior ophthalmologist in Afghanistan and in many lands springs from his lifelong faith A book very hard to put down I wholeheartedly recommend it

Cocaine Cowboys Nicola Tallant, 2023-11-02 An insightful and explosive expos Stephen Breen author of The Cartel and The Hitmen Ireland's top crime journalist traces the flood of cocaine into Ireland and those behind its unprecedented growth From the first smugglers and their adventures on the high seas to the modern day Instagram loving gangsters COCAINE COWBOYS weaves an intricate tale where high society and the criminal underworld collide COCAINE COWBOYS tells the story of Ireland's love affair with cocaine since it first washed ashore on Cork's rugged coast to the billion euro trade it has become From Ireland's first cocaine lord and his attempts to establish a direct route from Miami to Dublin to the modern day violence that led to the brutal dismemberment of teenager Keane Mulready Woods the book will follow the stories and the increasing chaos that has engulfed those desperate for a slice of this modern day gold rush Along the way it details how cocaine has woven bonds between high society and the underworld tracing the deal that killed the model Katy French and detailing how the Kinahan Cartel and Ireland's one time richest and most influential family joined forces to wash dirty money COCAINE COWBOYS is the definitive tale of the rise of Colombia's most famous export to become the drug of a nation

A Death in the Family Michael Stanley, 2021-01-10 There's no easy way to say this Kubu Your father's dead I'm afraid he's been murdered Faced with the violent death of his own father even Assistant Superintendent David Kubu Bengu Botswana CID's keenest mind is baffled Who would kill such a frail old man The picture becomes even murkier with the apparent suicide of a government official Are Chinese mine owners involved And what role does the US Embassy have to play Set amidst the dark beauty of modern Botswana A Death in the Family is a thrilling insight into a world of riots corruption and greed as a complex series of murders present the opera loving wine connoisseur detective with his most challenging case yet When grief stricken Kubu defies orders and sets out on the killers trail startling and chilling links emerge spanning the globe and setting a sequence of shocking events in motion Will Kubu catch the killers in time and find justice for his father

Fuzzy Logic Paul P. Wang, Da Ruan, Etienne E. Kerre, 2007-06-15 In order to properly characterize the content of this book it is important to clarify first the intended meaning of its title Fuzzy Logic This clarification is needed since the term fuzzy logic as currently used in the literature is viewed either in a narrow sense or in a broad sense In the narrow sense fuzzy logic is viewed as an area devoted to the formal development in a unified way of the various logical systems of many valued logic It is concerned with formalizing syntactic aspects based on the notion of proof and semantic aspects based on the notion of truth of the various logical calculi In order to be acceptable each of these logical calculi must be sound provability implies truth and complete truth implies provability The most representative publication of fuzzy logic in this sense is in my opinion the classic book by Peter Hajek 1 When the term fuzzy logic is viewed in the broad sense it refers to an extensive agenda whose primary aim is to utilize the apparatus of fuzzy set theory for developing sound concepts principles and methods for representing and dealing with knowledge expressed by statements in natural language Although working in fuzzy logic in the broad sense is not directly concerned with the issues that are investigated under fuzzy logic in the narrow sense the importance of the latter is that it provides the former with solid theoretical foundations After examining the content of this book it is easy to conclude that its title Fuzzy Logic refers to fuzzy logic in the broad sense This is consistent by and large with the usual meaning of the term fuzzy logic in the literature

The World Told and the World Shown Eija Ventola, Arsenio Jesús Moya Guijarro, 2009-10-29 Positioned within the field of linguistics and multisemiotic discourse analysis the theme of this book is the multifaceted interaction between text and image in different discourse genres and it offers critical views on how we talk and show our experience of the world around us Consuming mobility Jorrit O. Nijhuis, 2023-09-04 The current fossil fuel based system of mobility is associated with a wide range of environmental and social problems There is a growing body of literature on system innovations and transitions which has as a common understanding that long term transformative change is necessary to deal with these complex problems However knowledge on the crucial role of citizen consumers in sustainable mobility transitions is still underdeveloped By incorporating the viewpoint of consumption patterns and everyday life routines this book provides new knowledge on the role of citizen consumers in sustainable mobility transitions Theoretically a practice based approach is developed as a novel framework to analyse understand and influence transition processes to sustainable mobility at the level of everyday life The focus in each of the three cases studies is on situated interactions between consumers and producers Amongst these is an analysis of the role environmental information and subsidies in new car purchasing Also various examples in which an attempt was made to orchestrate a modal shift in commuting practices are examined Each of the empirical case studies shows the important role of contextual factors in understanding and influencing mobility behaviour of citizen consumers In addition this book helps to understand how and why innovation in mobility practices takes place or not

Gruver, Lawrence O. Hall, 2001 The Isil Sniper Alan M Grant, 2015-03-30 The Isil Sniper tells of a plot staged by a deeply disturbed ex soldier Abbas Shirazi His life is drastically affected first when his beloved parents are killed in a tragic accident Abbas then becomes an extremely skilled sniper in the British army Then the second disaster to befall him was when his sniper team by now close friends were blown to bits in an explosion in Afghanistan Abbas then embarks on a mission designed to terrorise his countrymen in the UK under the pretence of being an Islamic jihadist The truth is far distant from the myth and Abbas deservably meets a just end Build To Order Glenn Parry, Andrew Peter Graves, 2008-07-23 Over the past 100 years the European Automotive Industry has been repeatedly challenged by best practice First by the United States through the development of mass production pioneered by Henry Ford and more recently by lean production techniques as practised by the leading Japanese producers particularly Toyota It has consistently risen to these challenges and has shown it can compete and even outperform its competitors with world class products However the European dustry is now faced with growing competition and growth from new emerging low cost countries and needs to re define its competitive advantage to remain at the forefront of the sector Automotive growth is driven by two factors new m kets and new technologies Global competition is increasing with technology and product differentiation becoming the most important sales factors but with c tinued cost pressure Within the market the winners will be more profitable and the losers will disappear The Automotive Industry makes a significant contribution to the socio economic fabric of the European Union Manufacturing output represents 700 billion and research and development spending 24 billion European automotive suppliers number 5000 member companies and represent 5 million employees and generate 500 billion in revenues These are significant figures that generate wealth and high value employment within the EU European firms must consistently improve their competitive position to ensure that the industry does not migrate to growing new markets The Moose Paradox Antti
