Want To See Life Science Question Paper March 2014:

Dual-use life science research and biosecurity in the 21st Century: Social, Technical, Policy, and Ethical Challenges

Jonathan E. Suk, Kathleen M. Vogel, Amanda Jane Ozin, 2015-06-04 In September 2011 scientists announced new experimental findings that would not only threaten the conduct and publication of influenza research but would have significant policy and intelligence implications The findings presented a modified variant of the H5N1 avian influenza virus hereafter referred to as the H5N1 virus that was transmissible via aerosol between ferrets These results suggested a worrisome possibility the existence of a new airborne and highly lethal H5N1 virus that could cause a deadly global pandemic In response a series of international discussions on the nature of dual use life science arose These discussions addressed the complex social technical political security and ethical issues related to dual use research This Research Topic will be devoted to contributions that explore this matrix of issues from a variety of case study and international perspectives The

Handbook for Market Research for Life Sciences Companies Jean-Francois Denault, 2017-09-19 As innovation moves from the lab to the market a new research phase begins for the entrepreneur the market research phase Inspired by a new technology that can change the world critical questions need to be addressed Is there a market for my innovation Who are my clients What do they need Is my innovation filling that gap in the market Who are my competitors How are they approaching the market If these questions are unanswered entrepreneurs meet potential investors or partners with only a basic understanding of their market The objective of this book is to fill this gap It is a practical manual that gives entrepreneurs real world advice and tools to build a solid market model The book provides tips models and tools entrepreneurs can use to collect interpret and present their market and integrate it into their business plan What the entrepreneur learns in this book will help him throughout his journey After going over the market research process he will learn how to design and use a number of market research tools and how to adapt them in a life science context From building a web survey to preparing interviews to doing your own secondary research this handbook will help him gain a comprehensive understanding of how to perform his own market research activities and how to analyze his data Finally a number of frameworks such as the TAM SAM SOM as well as the KANO Model are described so that he can efficiently share what he has learned using models that simply yet effectively shares findings Millennials & Management Lee

Caraher, 2016-10-14 As management ages and prepares to work longer than previous generations and Millennials join companies at steady rate companies are suffering through tension and dissonance between Millennials and Boomers and realizing that they can't just wait for management to age out to fix it Finding productive ways to work across the generation gap is essential and the organizations that do this well will have significant strategic advantages over those that don't Millennials Management The Essential Guide to Making It Work at Work addresses a very real concern of large and small businesses nationwide how to motivate collaborate with and manage the millennial generation who now make up almost 50% of the American workforce The key is to change Boomer attitudes from disbelief and derision to acceptance and respect without giving up work standards Using real world examples author Lee Caraher gives leaders data driven steps to take to co create a productive workplace for today and tomorrow Landscapes of Collectivity in the Life Sciences Snait B.

Gissis,Ehud Lamm,Ayelet Shavit,2018-01-12 Broad perspective on collectivity in the life sciences from microorganisms to human consensus and the theoretical and empirical opportunities and challenges Many researchers and scholars in the life sciences have become increasingly critical of the traditional methodological focus on the individual This volume counters such methodological individualism by exploring recent and influential work in the life sciences that utilizes notions of collectivity sociality rich interactions and emergent phenomena as essential explanatory tools to handle numerous persistent scientific questions in the life sciences The contributors consider case studies of collectivity that range from microorganisms to human consensus discussing theoretical and empirical challenges and the innovative methods and solutions scientists have devised The contributors offer historical philosophical and biological perspectives on collectivity and describe collective phenomena seen in insects the immune system communication and human collectivity with examples ranging from cooperative transport in the longhorn crazy ant to the evolution of autobiographical memory They examine ways of explaining collectivity including case studies and modeling approaches and explore collectivity s explanatory power They present a comprehensive look at a specific case of collectivity the Holobiont notion the idea of a multi species collective a host and diverse microorganisms and the hologenome theory which posits that the holobiont and its hologenome are a unit of adaption The volume concludes with reflections on the work of the late physicist Eshel Ben Jacob pioneer in the study of collective phenomena in living systems Contributors Oren Bader John Beatty Dinah R Davison Daniel Dor Ofer Feinerman Raghavendra Gadagkar Scott F Gilbert Snait B Gissis Deborah M Gordon James Griesemer Zachariah I Grochau Wright Erik R Hanschen Eva Jablonka Mohit Kumar Jolly Anat Kolumbus Ehud Lamm Herbert Levine Arnon Levy Xue Fei Li Elisabeth A Lloyd Yael Lubin Eva Maria Luef Ehud Meron Richard E Michod Samir Okasha Simone Pika Joan Roughgarden Eugene Rosenberg Ayelet Shavit Yael Silver Alfred I Tauber Ilana Zilber Rosenberg The Asia-Pacific in the Age of Transnational Mobility Catherine Gomes,2016-12-01 The growing mobility of people within and into the Asia Pacific region has created environments of increasing diversity as nations become hosts to both permanent and temporary multicultural societies How do we begin to gauge the impact of mobility and multiculturalism on individuals and groups in this diverse region today The authors of The Asia Pacific in the Age of Transnational Mobility turn to social media as a tool of inquiry to map how mobile subjects and minorities articulate their sense of community and identity The authors see social media as a platform that allows users to document and express their individual and collective identities sometimes in restrictive communication environments while providing a sense of belonging and agency They present original empirical work that attempts to help readers understand how mobile subjects who circulate in the Asia Pacific create a sense of community for themselves and articulate their ethnic ideological and national identities

Risk Regulation in the Internal Market Maria

Weimer, 2019-03-13 This book offers a topical inquiry into the legal and political limits of EU regulation in the field of risk and new technologies surrounded by techno scientific complexity uncertainty and societal contestation It uses agricultural biotechnology as a paradigmatic example to illustrate the complex intertwinement between environmental public health economic and social concerns in risk regulation Weimer analyses the drawbacks of the EU approach to agricultural biotechnology showing that its reductionism i e the narrow understanding of GMO risks as well as the exclusion of broader societal concerns related to environmental and social sustainability has undermined both the legitimacy and effectiveness of EU regulation in this area Resistance to this approach however has also triggered legal innovations prompting us to re think EU internal market law including the way in which it manages the tensions between unity and diversity and between social and economic concerns This text offers fresh and original insights into how far the EU can go in harmonizing regulatory approaches to risk At the same time it proposes new ways of re thinking EU risk regulation to make it more responsive to different perspectives on risk and technology A unique feature of this book is that it contributes to various strains of scholarship including risk regulation internal market law public administration and studies of governance and regulation as well as connecting these themes to broader debates about the legitimacy of European integration and new ways of differentiated integration As a result it assists in re imagining the EU internal market and its regulation as a site of diversity
