A Changing United Nations W. Knight, 2000-10-19 The United Nations is at a critical juncture It is faced with two distinct choices to remain a decision frozen in time or to develop a long term adaptation agenda and strategy that would allow it to be a relevant institution of global governance for the twenty first century Reform and reflexive institutional adjustments have failed to address underlying problems facing this organization After fifty five years of existence it is still considered an inefficient and ineffective world body Worse yet its relevance is being questioned This study offers a critique of existing UN change processes and then shifts focus to considerations of institutional learning strategies that would allow the UN to maintain relevance amidst the evolution of global governance arrangements

The Rosicrucian Philosophy in Questions and Answers Max Heindel, 1922

Blind Obedience Meredith Williams, 2009-12-21 There is considerable debate amongst philosophers as to the basic philosophical problem Wittgenstein is attempting to solve in Philosophical Investigations In this bold and original work Meredith Williams argues that it is the problem of normative similarity In Blind Obedience Williams demonstrates how Wittgenstein criticizes traditional representationalist theories of language by employing the master novice distinction of the learner arguing that this distinction is often overlooked but fundamental to understanding philosophical problems about mind and language The book not only provides revealing discussions of Wittgenstein s corpus but also intricate analyses of the work of Brandom Dummett Frege Sellars Davidson Cavell and others These are usefully compared in a bid to better situate Wittgenstein s non intellectualist non theoretical approach and to highlight its unique features Job
