

COLONIAL EMPIRES WITH DIFFERENCE

- Patterns of racial separation was much more pronounced than in places such as Nigeria.
- The most extreme case was South Africa, where a large European population and the widespread use of African labor in mines and industries brought to establish race as legal and separate "homelands", educational systems, residential areas, public facilities. = apartheid.
- New means of communication and transportation, imposed changes in landholding patterns, integration of colonial economies into a global network of exchange, public health and sanitation measures – all this touched the daily lives of many people far more deeply than in earlier empires.
