Sketches From My Life Till Now English Edition:

New Sketches of Every-day Life Fredrika Bremer, 1853 The True Story of My Life: A Sketch Hans Christian Andersen, 2020-09-28 My life is a lovely story happy and full of incident If when I was a boy and went forth into the world poor and friendless a good fairy had met me and said Choose now thy own course through life and the object for which thou wilt strive and then according to the development of thy mind and as reason requires I will guide and defend thee to its attainment my fate could not even then have been directed more happily more prudently or better The history of my life will say to the world what it says to me There is a loving God who directs all things for the best My native land Denmark is a poetical land full of popular traditions old songs and an eventful history which has become bound up with that of Sweden and Norway The Danish islands are possessed of beautiful beech woods and corn and clover fields they resemble gardens on a great scale Upon one of these green islands Funen stands Odense the place of my birth Odense is called after the pagan god Odin who as tradition states lived here this place is the capital of the province and lies twenty two Danish miles from Copenhagen In the year 1805 there lived here in a small mean room a young married couple who were extremely attached to each other he was a shoemaker scarcely twenty two years old a man of a richly gifted and truly poetical mind His wife a few years older than himself was ignorant of life and of the world but possessed a heart full of love The young man had himself made his shoemaking bench and the bedstead with which he began housekeeping this bedstead he had made out of the wooden frame which had borne only a short time before the coffin of the deceased Count Trampe as he lay in state and the remnants of the black cloth on the wood work kept the fact still in remembrance Instead of a noble corpse surrounded by crape and wax lights here lay on the second of April 1805 a living and weeping child that was myself Hans Christian Andersen During the first day of my existence my father is said to have sat by the bed and read aloud in Holberg but I cried all the time Wilt thou go to sleep or listen quietly it is reported that my father asked in joke but I still cried on and even in the church when I was taken to be baptized I cried so loudly that the preacher who was a passionate man said The young one screams like a cat which words my mother never forgot A poor emigrant Gomar who stood as godfather consoled her in the mean time by saying that the louder I cried as a child all the more beautifully should I sing when I grew older The
