Fashion Illustration for Designers Kathryn Hagen, 2017-05-03 Fashion design begins in the designer's creative mind and drawing is the crucial next step to communicating creative ideas to others to bring those ideas to reality. Clear expressive drawings engage and bring together people in patternmaking, production, marketing, and all other facets of the fashion business, ensuring that everyone shares the same vision that originates with the designer. Kathryn Hagen brings decades of experience teaching design students how best to translate their ideas into drawings. She opens with basic drawing skills using both hand tools and computer techniques before moving on to applying those skills to both the human figure and the specifics of various types of clothing. Throughout the book, she exposes designers to myriad techniques and styles, encouraging each individual to discover what works best for him or her. Each chapter ends with practice exercises as well as visual references to review and reinforce material learned in the chapter lessons. Videos demonstrating hands-on examples can be viewed at waveland.com. Hagen, with emphasis on distressed fabrics and novelty treatments, 84 pages of color present a wide variety of rendering techniques.

Illustrated Men Lamont O'Neal, 2023-02-09 Delve into the art of menswear illustration and learn what it takes to create professional, praiseworthy fashion sketches. With over 300 color examples, illustrator and educator Lamont O'Neal uses a mixture of watercolor, marker, pencil, and digital tools to help you master fundamentals such as anatomy and proportion. Later chapters focus on garment drawing, the principles of balance and movement, as well as classic poses and how they can highlight a design. There's also a guide to the history of menswear illustration with introductions to some of the most influential practitioners and discussion of how to develop your own individual style by using hand drawing as an expression of individual style and creativity. There are also reference photographs showing how sketches and illustrations relate to the finished garment, making this the ultimate guide to drawing and rendering the male fashion figure.

Profiles: Cody Cannon, Carlos Aponte, Mengjie Di, Brian Lane, Ryan McMenamy, Emee Mathew, Francisco Cortes.

From the Royal to the Republican Body Sara E. Melzer, Kathryn Norberg, 2023-09-01 In this innovative volume, leading scholars examine the role of the body as a primary site of political signification in seventeenth and eighteenth-century France. Some essays focus on the sacralization of the king's body through a gendered textual and visual rhetoric. Others show how the monarchy mastered subjects' minds by disciplining the body through dance, music, drama, art, and social rituals. The last essays in the volume focus on the unmaking of the king's body and the substitution of a new republican body. Throughout, the authors explore how race and gender shaped the body politic under the Bourbons and during the Revolution. This compelling study expands our conception of state power and demonstrates that seemingly apolitical activities like the performing arts, dress, and ritual contribute to the state's hegemony. From the Royal to the Republican Body will be an essential resource for students and scholars of history, literature, music, dance and performance studies gender studies art history and political theory In this innovative volume leading scholars examine the role of the body as a primary site of political signification in seventeenth and eighteenth century France Some essays focus on the sacralization of the king's body through a gendered textual and v

Feminism and the Body Londa Schiebinger, 2000-06-22 This collection of classic essays in feminist body studies investigates the history of the image of the female body from the medical discovery of the clitoris to the body politic of Queen Elizabeth I to women deprecated as Hottentot Venuses in the nineteenth century The text look at the way in which coverings bear cultural meaning clothing reform during the French Revolution Islamic veiling and the invention of the top hat as well as the embodiment of cherished cultural values in social icons such as the Statue of Liberty or the Barbie doll By considering culture as it defines not only women but also men this volume offers both the student and the general reader an insight into the interdisciplinary and cross cultural study involved in feminist body studies

The Road to Catoctin Mountain Robert J. Gerard, 2006-02-08 Robert Gerards life story involves a fascinating journey full of twists turns and unexpected events With no specific career plan in place things just happened mostly good things Along the way over time people events and places seemed to re emerge in an intriguing way Gerard was born in New York City in 1930 He and his mother and father lived on the west side near Central Park He didn't know until many years later that his father was an alien who had entered the United States illegally and changed his name When Robert was just two years old the FBI came knocking at the apartment off Central Park West However they were not looking for illegal aliens They were looking for the Lindbergh baby Later the family moved to West Orange New Jersey a small town where it seemed that nearly everyone was employed by Thomas A Edison Inc Gerards story captures the lean years of the 1930s prior to World War II some problems at home and his escapades as a teen ager during the war years including two years of tough discipline at a private boarding school in North Jersey It was during this period that his father was deported to Belgium from Ellis Island After graduating from high school Gerard joined the ranks of those who worked at one of the Edison factories in West Orange Two older workers combat veterans from WWII became his mentors During the early phases of the Korean War they shared fascinating stories about their wartime experiences Bored by factory work and inspired by his two local heroes Gerard enlisted in the army in 1951 As a result of some very poor training Gerard and a good friend decided to apply for admission to Officer Candidate School Ironically Robert Gerard the reluctant applicant was accepted while his buddy was rejected After his commissioning his experience in Korea prompted him to remain in the army While stationed with the 82d Airborne Division at Fort Bragg he married a high school classmate in 1954 Together they had eight children Gerard describes his assignment as a weapons instructor at Fort Benning Georgia and then his experience as a student in the Armys flight school at Fort Rucker Alabama An opportunity to complete his undergraduate education took him and his family to Mississippi Southern College in Hattiesburg Mississippi during the same year that James Meredith became the first black student to be admitted to the University of Mississippi Gerards subsequent assignment at the Armys Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth Kansas 1963 1964 was a year filled with major events including President Kennedys assassination the increasing commitment to military support for South Vietnam and an address by former President Harry Truman Next a wonderful assignment in Verona Italy where his family lived in a small Italian village was cut short due to critical needs for army helicopter pilots in Vietnam He describes his first tour in Vietnam including the buildup of U S conventional forces and the application of air mobility as a part of tactical operations Also he had an opportunity to see his brother whose base camp was just several miles away After returning to the States he worked in the Pentagon and described both the serious and hilarious events related to surviving in The Puzzle Palace In 1970 his second tour in Vietnam placed him much farther north near the Demilitarized Zone where enemy forces consist mostly of North Vietnamese regulars His description of military operations in Vietnam reflects both the early years as well as the beginning of the drawdown of U S forces After an interesting year of study at Monmouth College Gerard attended the U S Army War College at Carlisle Barracks Pennsylvania just a few miles south of Indiantown Gap where he took his basic training His experien      The Boys' Outfitter ,1920
