Abstract: Spontaneous means without intention and fatal means deadly, dangerous, but both of these words have been used in different ways. For example, spontaneous combustion is an unexpected fire caused by heat, but spontaneous combustion is also used to describe a person's behavior. Being spontaneous is the opposite of being intentional. The purpose of this presentation is to explain the use of these words in different contexts and to provide some examples of their use.
