Natural Prophets Joe Dobrow, 2014-02-18. From a handful of idealistic farmers and local co-ops in the 1960s to the domination of juggernauts like Whole Foods, the wild success of the natural and organic foods industry proves that principled business is not just possible but profitable. With nearly unfettered double-digit annual growth, the development of this now $88 billion industry is one of the most remarkable untold stories in American business history. Trailblazers like Mo Siegel of Celestial Seasonings, Gary Hirshberg of Stonyfield Farms, and John Mackey of Whole Foods openly challenged the interests of Big American Agribusiness, transformed food manufacturing and retailing, and re-wrote the playbook for small entrepreneurs. Dobrow, a 20-year veteran of the natural foods industry who had a front-row seat and backstage pass to much of the upheaval and expansion, he describes, characterizes the radical vision of these natural prophets as one part anti-industrial activism, one part bold opportunism, and one part new-era marketing genius. The triple bottom line—people, planet, profit—emerged as a major new lodestone for successful values-based business practices. Natural Prophets is a fascinating narrative account of these upstart Davids, their failures, and their unprecedented successes that distills lessons about management, marketing, and
