Question With complete Solutions.

is strongly influenced by the SBC's own thinking and belief system. It takes time, patient and perseverance to know if the culture change is needed. Differences will have to be acknowledged in learning together and realize that groups learn for the good of individuals. Trust is earned and is a key to all change/transition efforts. Success is the result of trust in achieving good outcomes and the necessary leadership commitment.

It is noteworthy, however, as previously noted, that the research has been based exclusively on the "top-down" perspective of students' life in programs after admission. The research, I believe, has succeeded in this regard in that it has demonstrated the importance of giving the voice of students.
