Tough Tough Toys For Tough Tough Boys:

Tough, Tough Toys for Tough, Tough Boys Will Self, 2000 Will Self brings the savage comic sensibility of social satire to warp speed Bizarre inventive dyspeptic these postmodern fables end as fables should with a pointed moral a sting in the scorpion's tale The Boston Globe The Undivided Self Will Self, 2010-10-26 This new volume of work from the British satirist draws selected short stories from his five previous collections including The Quantity Theory of Insanity Gray Area and Tough Tough Toys for Tough Tough Boys Liver Will Self, 2019-08-20 In this collection of four linked stories newly reissued by Grove Will Self takes aim at the disease and decay that target the largest of human organs the liver Set in locales as toxic as a London drinking club and mundane as a clinic in an orderly Swiss city the stories distill the hard lives of their subjects whether alcoholic drug addict or cancer patient In Foie Humaine set at the Plantation Club it's always a Tuesday afternoon in midwinter and the shivering denizens of this dusty realm spend their days observing its proprietor as he force feeds the barman vodka spiked beer Joyce Beddoes protagonist of Leberkn del has terminal liver cancer and is on her way to be euthanized in Zurich when miraculously her disease goes into remission In Prometheus a young copywriter at London's most cutting edge ad agency has his liver nibbled by a griffon thrice daily but he's always in the pink the following morning and ready to make that killer pitch If blood and bile flow through liverish London the two arteries meet in Birdy Num Num where career junky Billy Chobham performs little services for the customers who gather to wait for the Man while in his blood a virus pullulates A moving portrayal of egos appetites and addictions Liver is an extraordinary achievement from one of the most talented minds working today The Sweet Smell of Psychosis Will Self, 2012-10-16 A brief and brilliant satire of magazine hacks and fashionistas The Sweet Smell of Psychosis shows Will Self a writer hailed by Time as brilliant iconoclastic one of Britain's most original young writers at the top of his form It looks like it's going to be quite a Christmas for Richard Hermes powdered with cocaine and whining with the white noise of urban derangement Not so much enfolded as trapped in the bosom of the most venal media clique in London Richard is losing it on all fronts he's losing his heart to Ursula Bentley a nubile and vacuous magazine columnist he's in danger of losing his job at the pretentious listings magazine Rendezvous he's losing his mind courtesy of Colombia's chief illegal export and worst of all he's losing his soul to the king of all media and sinister purveyor of opportunities sexual chemical and professional known only as Bell Murky paranoid and hilarious The Sweet Smell of Psychosis is Will Self at his best Character and Satire in Post War Fiction Ian Gregson, 2008-04-01 This monograph analyses the use of caricature as one of the key strategies in narrative fiction since the war Close analysis of some of the best known postwar novelists including Toni Morrison Philip Roth Joyce Carol Oates Angela Carter and Will Self reveals how they use caricature to express postmodern conceptions of the self In the process of moving away from the modernist focus on subjectivity postmodern characterisation has often drawn on a much older satirical tradition which includes Hogarth and Gillray in the visual arts and Dryden Pope Swift and Dickens in literature Its key images depict the human as reduced to the status of an object an animal or a machine or the human body as dismembered to represent the fragmentation of the human spirit Gregson argues that this return to caricature is symptomatic of a satirical attitude to the self which is particularly characteristic of contemporary culture Grey Area Will Self,2012-10-16 Will Self whom the Los Angeles Times calls the hottest young novelist in England demonstrates his razor sharp wit in these nine new stories Self's method depends upon taking an ordinary aspect of the world and then pushing it to its limit in furious absurdity The short stories in Grey Area reflect the technical brilliance and satiric voice that have made him one of the most highly praised comic writers in a decade These are stories that delve into the modern psyche with unsettling and darkly satiric results Inclusion tells the story of a doctor who is illegally testing a new antidepressant made from bee excrement A Short History of the English Novel brings us face to face with a pompous publisher who is greeted at every turn by countless rejected authors In The End of the Relationship a woman who has been left by her boyfriend provokes like some emotional Typhoid Mary that same reaction among all the couples she goes to for comfort The narrator of Between the Conceits declares without hesitation that London is controlled by only eight individuals and thankfully he is one of them Self's world in these pieces is both curiously familiar and hauntingly strange Published to critical acclaim in England Grey Area is a dazzling collection by one of the most talented and original writers of his generation Writers Talk Philip Tew,Fiona Tolan,Leigh Wilson,2008-05-01 Writers Talk includes interviews with Kate Atkinson Pat Barker Jonathan Coe Jim Crace Toby Litt Graham Swift Matt Thorne David Mitchell Alan Warner and Will Self Is it a good time to be a writer in the time of The Da Vinci Code It is not necessarily good time to be a literary writer Kate Atkinson The best novels allow us to rehearse the world ahead of us to play out the battle before we fight it to experience disaster before we encounter it to practice grief before it flattens us Narrative is useful It confers advantages on us as a species Jim Crace Why do writers write How do they react to criticism of their work What inspires them and how do go about working Does fiction have any political ethical or spiritual significance Can we learn more about a book from its author This collection of interviews with contemporary British novelists offers a fascinating insight into bestselling authors views on fiction today their influences and themes readers and critics why they write and their writing process and provides a snapshot of the reality of living as a writer Imagining Marketing Stephen Brown,Anthony Patterson,2001-02-01 Imagination is a word that is widely used by marketing practitioners but rarely examined by marketing academics This neglect is largely due to the imagination's artistic connotations which run counter to the scientific mindset that dominates marketing scholarship Of late however an artistic turn has taken place in marketing research and Umbrella Will Self,2013-01-01 Recently having abandoned his R D Laing influenced experiment in running a therapeutic community the so called Concept House in Willesden maverick psychiatrist Zack Busner arrives at Friern Hospital a vast Victorian mental asylum in North London under a professional and marital cloud He has every intention of avoiding controversy but then he encounters Audrey Death a working class girl from Fulham born in 1890 who has been immured in Friern for decades A socialist a feminist and a munitions worker at the Woolwich Arsenal Audrey fell victim to the encephalitis lethargica sleeping sickness epidemic at the end of the First World War and has been in a coma ever since Realising that Audrey is just one of a number of post encephalitics scattered throughout the asylum Busner becomes involved in an attempt to bring them back to life with wholly unforeseen consequences Humor Simon Critchley,2013-10-31 Humor is een fascinerend prachtig geschreven en komisch boek over wat humor ons kan vertellen over onze menselijke natuur Van de oudheid tot aan de moderne tijd en puttend uit het werk van een breed scala aan auteurs in het bijzonder Swift Sterne Shaftesbury Bergson Beckett en Freud keert Humor het komische binnenstebuiten en onthult ons een smakelijk inzicht in wat we grappig vinden Humor beantwoordt vragen zoals Waarom lijden komieken aan depressies Waarom lachen we zo vaak om dieren en Wat gebeurt er in racistische en seksistische humor Humor zal niet alleen de lezers uit een reeks van disciplines zoals filosofie theologie literatuurwetenschap psychanalyse geschiedenis en antropologie aanspreken maar ook zeer tot de verbeelding spreken van een ieder met een gevoel voor humor ieder van ons dus hopelijk

Modernism, Postmodernism, and the Short Story in English ,2012-01-01 How can the short story help to redefine modernism postmodernism and their interrelationship What is the status of the short story in modern literary history These are the central questions that the essays collected in this volume try to answer from different perspectives through readings of short fiction in English and accounts of the genre s theorisations The essays by a group of international scholars tackle theoretical issues that are central in approaches to both movements such as periodisation autonomy high vs popular literature totality vs fragmentation surface vs depth otherness representation and above all the subject and its vicissitudes Because it blends theory based arguments into the approaches to the short fiction of mainly canonical authors Joyce Woolf Lewis Ballard Carter Rushdie or Wallace Modernism Postmodernism and the Short Story in English is of interest not only to readers and scholars of the short story but also to those coming from the fields of literary theory and literary history

Addiction, Modernity, and the City Christopher B.R. Smith,2015-11-19 Examining the interdependent nature of substance space and subjectivity this book constitutes an interdisciplinary analysis of the intoxication indigenous to what has been termed our narcotic modernity The first section Drug Culture demonstrates how the body of the addict and the social body of the city are both inscribed by controlled substance Positing addiction as a pathology out of place that is specific to the late capitalist urban landscape the second section Dope Sick conducts a critique of the prevailing pathology paradigm of addiction proposing in its place a theoretical reconceptualization of drug dependence in the terms of prescription Remapping the successive stages or phases of our narcotic modernity the third section Narco State delineates three primary eras of narcotic modernity including the contemporary city of safe supervised consumption Employing an experimental intra textual format the fourth section Brain Disease mimics the sense state or scape of intoxication accompanying each permutation of narcotic modernity in the interchangeable terms of drug dream and or disease Tracing the parallel evolution of addiction the late capitalist cityscape and the pathological project of modernity the four parts of this book thus together constitute a users guide to urban space Transport, Climate Change and the City Robin Hickman,David Banister,2014-02-05 Sustainable mobility has long been sought after in cities around the world particularly in industrialised countries but also increasingly in the emerging cities in Asia Progress however appears difficult to make as the private car still largely fuelled by petrol or diesel remains the mainstream mode of use Transport is the key sector where carbon dioxide CO2 emissions seem difficult to reduce Transport Climate Change and the City seeks to develop achievable and low transport CO2 emission futures in a range of international case studies including in London Oxfordshire Delhi Jinan and Auckland The aim is that the scenarios as developed and the consideration of implementation and governance issues can help us plan for and achieve attractive future travel behaviours at the city level The alternative is to continue with only incremental progress against CO2 reduction targets to sleepwalk into climate change difficulties oil scarcity a poor quality of life and to continue with the high traffic casualty figures The topic is thus critical with transport viewed as central to the achievement of the sustainable city and reduced CO2 emissions On Humour Simon Critchley,2011-08-26 Does humour make us human or do the cats and dogs laugh along with us On Humour is a fascinating beautifully written and funny book on what humour can tell us about being human Simon Critchley skilfully probes some of the most perennial but least understood aspects of humour such as our tendency to laugh at animals and our bodies why we mock death with comedy and why we think it s funny when people act like machines He also looks at the darker side of humour as rife in sexism and racism and argues that it is important for reminding us of people we would rather not be The Cambridge History of the English Short Story Dominic Head,2016-11-14 The Cambridge History of the English Short Story is the first comprehensive volume to capture the literary history of the English short story Charting the origins and generic evolution of the English short story to the present day and written by international experts in the field this book covers numerous transnational and historical connections between writers modes and forms of transmission Suitable for English literature students and scholars of the English short story generally it will become a standard work of reference in its field How the Dead Live Will Self,2013-10-03 It s 1988 and Lily Bloom a 65 year old American lies dying of cancer in a London hospital As her two daughters buzz around her and the nurses pump her full of morphine she slides in and out of consciousness outraged that there is so little time left and so many people still to disparage The 1990s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble,Philip Tew,Leigh Wilson,2015-05-21 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 1990s shape contemporary British Fiction From the fall of the Berlin Wall to the turn of the millennium the 1990s witnessed a realignment of global politics Against the changing international scene this volume uses events abroad and in Britain to examine and explain the changes taking place in British fiction including the celebration of national identities fuelled by the move toward political devolution in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales the literary optimism in urban ethnic fictions written by a new generation of authors

born and raised in Britain the popularity of neo Victorian fiction Critical surveys are balanced by in depth readings of work by the authors who defined the decade including A S Byatt Hanif Kureishi Will Self Caryl Phillips and Irvine Welsh an approach that illustrates exactly how their key themes and concerns fit within the social and political circumstances of the decade

Voices and Silence in the Contemporary Novel in English Vanessa Guignery, 2009-10-02 This volume examines the various processes at work in expressing silence and excessive speech in contemporary novels in English covering the whole spectrum from effusiveness to muteness Even if in the postmodern episteme language is deemed inadequate for speaking the unspeakable contemporary authors still rely on voice as a mode of representation and a performative tool and exploit silence not only as a sign of absence block or withdrawal but also as a token of presence and resistance Logorrhoea and reticence are not necessarily antithetical as compulsive verbosity may work as a smokescreen to sidestep the real issues while silences and gaps may reveal more than they hide By submitting their texts to both expansion and retention hypertrophy and aphasia writers persistently test the limits of language and its ability to make sense of individual and collective stories The present volume analyses the complex poetics of silence and speech in fiction from the 1960 s to the present with special focus on Will Self Graham Swift John Fowles Kazuo Ishiguro Jenny Diski Lionel Shriver Mich le Roberts Margaret Atwood Jonathan Safran Foer Salman Rushdie Arundhati Roy Zadie Smith Jamaica Kincaid Ryhaan Shah and J M Coetzee The Contemporary British Novel Philip Tew, 2007-04-26 The Contemporary British Novel is a lively wide ranging guide to the key issues in writing in Britain since the mid 1970s including social change gender sexuality class history and ethnicity Designed to address problems faced by students in the exciting but challenging field of contemporary fiction the text is organised to focus on major topics including the changing nature of British identity the representation of urban identity and urban spaces class issues including the rise and fall of the middle class multiracial identity and hybridity The second edition includes a new introduction and a new chapter on fiction since the millennium focusing on a post 9 11 aesthetic Every chapter has been revised for the new edition and now includes an initial overview and recommended reading to offer guidance on further study Includes readings of novels by Martin Amis Pat Barker A S Byatt Jonathan Coe Hanif Kureishi Salman Rushdie Will Self Zadie Smith Jeanette Winterson among others Understanding Will Self M. Hunter Hayes, 2007 Understanding Will Self introduces readers to the satire and expressive ingenuity of a British writer who has garnered an array of awards since the 1991 publication of his first short story collection The Quantity Theory of Sanity In this guide to the well received but largely unstudied writer M Hunter Hayes examines the key themes narrative strategies and cultural commentaries that characterize Self s work Through close textual analyses Hayes guides readers through the alternative universe of Self s writing and maps the interplay between his forays into journalism and fiction Marked by their combination of seemingly improbable events and quotidian details Self s novels novellas and short stories examine contemporary English life through a mode of writing that he has aptly termed dirty magical realism Hayes shows how recurring characters have evolved through successive works and in relation with their environments
