Tourism Exemplar Nov 201:

Tourism, Tradition and Culture David Harrison, 2020-11-18 David Harrison has contributed to the academic study of tourism over the last 30 years. This book brings together a collection of his published material that reflects the role played by tourism in development both in societies emerging from Western colonialism and in societies previously part of the Soviet system. The overarching theme looks at how promoted as a tool for development, tourism can lead to conflict between competing elites but can also empower groups previously subject to constraint by traditional authorities. Tradition is intensely manipulatable and always reflects power relations. Such pressure on tradition is but one aspect of tourism's wider social impacts. This includes changes in economic and social structure which for many constitute social problems that need to be addressed. At the same time, sustainability though apparently a worthy aim can be a problematic concept especially when applied to traditional cultures and may conflict with such ideals as egalitarianism.

Handbook on Sustainable Urban Tourism Cristina Maxim, Alastair M. Morrison, Jonathon Day, J. A. Coca-Stefaniak, 2024-01-18 In this multidisciplinary and multi-jurisdictional account of sustainability in urban tourist destinations, the Handbook on Sustainable Urban Tourism draws together the latest academic research and provides key practical insights on this developing area of study. It not only considers the importance of cities as ideal tourist destinations due to their complex characteristics and the variety of attractions they offer but also the challenges they are confronted with, most notably sustainability.

Sustainability of Tourism Metin Kozak, Nazmi Kozak, 2011-07-12 The subject of sustainability has become central to the discussion of how to succeed in the stable development of the tourism industry due to the uncontrollable nature of supply and demand over the past few decades. Thus, this book examines policies and practices associated with the introduction of various methods in order to maintain sustainable tourism development. The list of policies and practices is based on a selection of the most recent topics providing many real-world examples and cases in relation to culture and nature-based environmental issues representing both individual businesses and tourist destinations with an international focus, namely Australia, Belgium, Bulgaria, Canada, Portugal, South Korea, Taiwan, Turkey, and the USA. Structured with 15 chapters, altogether the principles and guidelines discussed apply equally to different product levels in tourism such as museums, cities, regions, and countries. This volume is intended as a supplementary textbook for further reading. The editors believe that the book will gain attention from colleagues worldwide because of relevant educational courses on sustainable tourism, environmental tourism, and cultural heritage management.

Michael Hall, Allan M. Williams, 2019-11-25 This ground breaking volume on the relationships between tourism and innovation provides an overview of relevant innovation theories and related literatures on entrepreneurship productivity regional development and competitiveness and their significance to contemporary tourism practices Innovation is a key concept in business and entrepreneurial studies and the broader social sciences Yet despite its policy and academic importance historically little attention has been given to the role of innovation in tourism and the corresponding contribution of tourism related human mobility to regional firm and product innovation This book emphasises that innovation in tourism is much more than a series of technological innovations as important as they are and instead needs to be understood in an economic social and political context with particular stress being placed on the extent to which innovations are shaped by the framework of governance and regulation as well as by institutional factors and activities of individual actors and entrepreneurs It is structured so as to introduce the reader to the overall significance of innovation at various levels and the role that innovation plays in firm and place competition Supported with case studies throughout this book is essential reading for all tourism students Tourism Public Policy, and the Strategic Management of Failure William Revill

Kerr, 2003-09-04 First Published in 2003 The development of tourism and tourism public policy and the strategic management of failure of tourism to realize its commercial potential are all considered in this book The particular salience of this research lies in the fact that it has been conducted during an interesting politically and volatile globally period for the world's tourism industry Increasing competition economic and environmental issues combined with the continued threat of terrorism and instability in the Middle East necessitated governments assessing and redefining their tourism public policies How they approached this in the late nineties and new Millennium is reflected in the first part of the book The second part focuses on Scotland whose tourism public policy issues in the late nineties were focused concentrated and mutated by globalization political devolution and the restoration of the Scottish Parliament in 1999 In consequence tourism and economic development powers were devolved to Edinburgh from Westminster However other powers such as fiscal and employment policies which impacted greatly on tourism were reserved to Westminster a complex situation which the book has also set out to explain as it does the Scottish Parliament's inability to influence such powers During the lifetime of the first parliament in almost three hundred years Scottish tourism was confronted by significant challenges e.g. the foot and mouth epidemic the terrorist atrocities in the USA Indonesia and Kenya the combination of which for a short but crucial period virtually decimated North American tourism trade to Europe and of course recession

Heritage Tourism V. Dao Truong, David W. Knight, 2025-07-01 This book provides an overview of research and best practices associated with heritage tourism with a particular focus on Vietnam in conversation with heritage tourism in other Asian contexts These include Iran in the Middle East Sri Lanka in South Asia Japan and China in East Asia Thailand in Southeast Asia and Brunei and the Philippines in the South Pacific By delving into crucial questions and challenges relating to cultural innovation preservation and authenticity it offers key lessons for policy making and theorisation which not only contribute to understanding and improving heritage tourism in Vietnam specifically and in Asia more broadly but also inform efforts to preserve and regenerate both natural and cultural heritage on a global scale It is relevant to researchers and student communities working within areas of heritage sustainability tourism geography and in Asian studies

Nature Tourism Tensie Whelan, 1991 Tourism remains the world's most significant growth industry and is a lifeline to the future for many developing countries But there is often an environmental price to be paid for tourism which is an activity that concentrates pressure on landscapes in both spatial most people want to see the same things and temporal most people travel at the same time senses This collection addresses both the growing trend in favor of ecotourism and its environmental impacts Contributors present a sampling of nature tourism experiences Kenya Yellowstone Costa Rica and deal with nuts and bolts issues such as economics marketing and the crucial role of local involvement The book focuses on the ways in which nature tourism can continue to stimulate local economies while minimizing environmental degradation ISBN 1 55963 037 X 34 95

The Lady and the Peacock Peter Popham, 2012-03-29 Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Aung San Suu Kyi known to the world as an icon for democracy and nonviolent dissent in oppressed Burma and to her followers as simply The Lady has recently returned to international headlines Now this major new biography offers essential reading at a moment when Burma after decades of stagnation is once again in flux Suu Kyi's remarkable life begins with that of her father Aung San The architect of Burma's independence he was assassinated when she was only two Suu Kyi grew up in India where her mother served as ambassador studied at Oxford and worked for three years at the UN in New York In 1972 she married Michael Aris a British scholar They had two sons and for several years she lived as a self described housewife but she never forgot that she was the daughter of Burma's national hero. In April 1988 Suu Kyi returned to Burma to nurse her sick mother. Within six months she was leading the largest popular revolt in the country's history. She was put under house arrest by the regime but her party won a landslide victory in the 1990 elections which the regime refused to recognize. In 1991 still under arrest she received the Nobel Peace Prize. Altogether she has spent over fifteen years in detention and narrowly escaped assassination twice. Peter Popham distills five years of research including covert trips to Burma, meetings with Suu Kyi and her friends and family and extracts from the unpublished diaries of her co-campaigner and former confidante Ma Thanegi into this vivid portrait of Aung San Suu Kyi illuminating her public successes and private sorrows, her intellect and enduring sense of humor, her commitment to peaceful revolution and the extreme price she has paid for it.

Protected Areas and International Environmental Law Alexander Gillespie, 2007 This volume seeks to provide the reader with a clear understanding to the way that protected areas are created, listed and managed in international law. In doing so it provides a complete overview of the primary international and regional conventions in this area and the decisions and resolutions that have come from them. In doing so it provides a comprehensive examination of inter alia the World Heritage Convention, the Man and the Biosphere regime, the Ramsar Wetlands Treaty and the Convention on Migratory Species. It also deals extensively with the important regional conventions in this area covering Europe, Africa and the Americas. The regimes governing international maritime protected areas and Antarctica are also dealt with. In each area the values, selection considerations, management and compliance considerations are examined in detail and linked into recognizable examples from well known protected sites of international significance.

Humanitarian Shame and Redemption Heidi Mogstad, 2023-12-08 Following the 2015 refugee crisis many different actors emerged to contest or mitigate the EU's border policies. This book explores the birth and trajectory of a Norwegian volunteer organisation, A Drop in the Ocean, established by a mother of five with no prior experience in humanitarian work. Drawing on eighteen months of ethnographic fieldwork, Heidi Mogstad examines the organisation's shifting and contested efforts to fill humanitarian gaps in Greece while witnessing and shaming the Norwegian public and politicians into action. Moving beyond existing critiques of humanitarian sentiments like pity and compassion, the book focuses specifically on the work of shame and other negative emotions.

Airline Finance Peter S. Morrell, 2021-06-09 Revised and updated in its fifth edition, this internationally renowned and respected book provides the essentials to understanding all areas of airline finance. Designed to address each of the distinct areas of financial management in an air transport industry context, it also shows how these fit together. While each chapter and topic, for example aircraft leasing, provides a detailed resource that can also be consulted separately, supported at each stage by practical airline examples and recent data, Airline Finance examines the financial trends and longer term prospects for the airline industry as a whole, contrasting the developments for the major regions and airlines together with critical discussion of key issues that affect the industry as a whole Important techniques in financial analysis are applied to the airlines as well as their investors such as banks and other financial institutions Thoroughly amended and updated throughout and expanded with the addition of two new chapters the fifth edition reflects the many developments that have affected the industry such as the impacts of the banking and sovereign debt crises on the airline industry signs of re nationalisation of airlines that have emerged in Europe and the substantial changes that have occurred in connection with rating agencies and LIBOR New start ups and bankruptcies are covered for the first time in a new chapter joined by airline mergers and acquisitions M A both playing a role in airline concentration Reflecting their status as a permanent feature fuel hedging and fuel surcharges now also have their own chapter The medium to long term future in terms of further concentration and government intervention or the lack of it and a shift in aircraft financing towards capital markets are discussed in the final chapter The book is written for employees of airlines airports and their suppliers and investment bank and other analysts It is also popular for use by universities and in house courses on air transport management within both academia and industry

Consuming the Entrepreneurial City Anne Cronin, Kevin Hetherington, 2008-04-07 This collection offers a global perspective on the changing character of cities and the increasing importance that consumer culture plays in defining their symbolic economies Increasingly forms of spectacle have come to shape how cities are imagined and to influence their character and the practices through which we know them from advertising and the selling of real estate to youth cultural consumption practices and forms of entrepreneurship to the regeneration of urban areas under the guise of the heritage industry and the development of a WiFi landscape Using examples of cities such as New York Sydney Atlantic City Barcelona Rio de Janeiro Douala Liverpool San Juan Berlin and Harbin this book illustrates how image and practice have become entangled in the performance of the symbolic economy It also argues that it is not just how the urban present is being shaped in this way that is significant to the development of cities but also that a prominent feature of their development has been the spectacular imagining of the past as heritage and through regeneration Yet the ghosts that this conjures up in practice offer us a possible form of political unsettlement and alternative ways of viewing cities that is only just beginning to be explored Through this important collection by some of the leading analysts of consumption cities and space Consuming the Entrepreneurial City offers a cutting edge analysis of the ways in which cities are developing and the implications this has for their future It is essential reading for students of Urban Studies Geography Sociology Cultural Studies Heritage Studies and Anthropology

Stereotypes and Prejudice in Conflict Daniel Bar-Tal, Yona Teichman, 2009-12-03 In the last two decades the study of social stereotypes and prejudice has become one of the central interests in social psychology in particular One reflection of this growing interest is the focus on shared stereotypes and prejudices The primary reason for this development is the recognition that stereotypes and prejudice play a determinative role in shaping intergroup relations In situations of conflict they are simultaneously outcomes of the accumulated animosity between the involved groups and also feed on the continuation of the conflict by furnishing the cognitive affective basis for the experienced mistrust by the parties In spite of this recognition no systematic analysis of the stereotypes and prejudice was carried out in real situations This book tries to rectify this by applying a general and universal conceptual framework to the study of the acquisition and development of stereotypes and prejudice in a society involved in an intractable conflict

Religion in Contemporary China Adam Yuet Chau, 2010-12-21 This book provides a wide ranging and in depth survey of contemporary religious practices in China It explains how recent economic reforms and concurrent relaxation of religious policies have created fertile ground for the revitalization of a wide range of religious practices and relates this to larger issues of social and cultural continuity and change

Cities of Culture Deborah Stevenson, 2013-08-15 Culture now has a prominent place on the urban policy and re-profiling agendas of cities around the world City based cultural planning emphasising creativity in all its guises has emerged as a significant local policy initiative while the notion of the creative city has become an urban imaging cliché The proliferation of local blueprints for cultural planning creative cities has been remarkable while supra state bodies such as the European Union and UNESCO are also fostering the use of culture in strategies to revive cities and urban economies and to brand places as different Cities of Culture highlights significant trends in cultural planning since its inception revealing and analysing key discourses and influential globally circulating manifestos and processes as well as their interpretation and implementation in specific places With reference to examples drawn from Europe Australia Asia and North America Cities of Culture provides insights into the application of urban cultural strategies in different local national and international contexts highlighting regularities tensions and intersections as well as core underpinning assumptions This book explores the now pervasive expectation that cultural planning is capable of achieving a wide range of social economic urban and creative outcomes It will be of interest for students and scholars of urban sociology urban studies cultural policy studies and human geography

Planning for Growth Fulong Wu, 2015-01-09 Planning for Growth Urban and Regional Planning in China provides an overview of the changes in China's planning system policy and practices using concrete examples and informative details in language that is accessible enough for the undergraduate but thoroughly grounded in a wealth of research and academic experience to support academics It is the first accessible text on changing urban and regional planning in China under the process of transition from a centrally planned socialist economy to an emerging market in the world Fulong Wu a leading authority on Chinese cities and urban and regional planning sets up the historical framework of planning in China including its foundation based on the proactive approach to economic growth the new forms of planning such as the strategic spatial plan and urban cluster plans that have emerged and stimulated rapid urban expansion and transformed compact Chinese cities into dispersed metropolises And goes on to explain the new planning practices that began to pay attention to eco cities new towns and new development areas Planning for Growth Urban and Regional Planning in China demonstrates that planning is not necessarily an enemy of growth and plays an important role in Chinese urbanization and economic growth On the other hand it also shows planning s limitations in achieving a more sustainable and just urban future
