Gillard Governments Chris Aulich, 2014-02-03 The years 2010 to 2013 saw a remarkable period in Australian political history Julia Gillard became Australia s first female prime minister after she successfully staged a leadership challenge to Prime Minister Kevin Rudd A few months later she led her party to the 2010 federal election and subsequently steered through seventeen days of negotiation with three independent members to successfully form her second but minority government Yet three years and three days later she was overthrown by the very man she had originally dethroned In this book expert contributors consider the turbulence of that period and reflect on the Gillard governments policy setting institutional and political legacies In particular they consider the issue of Gillard s leadership of a minority government and the arrangements needed to work with the Greens and independents to achieve Labor policies in the parliament A recurring theme raised by many of the authors relates to the many distractions that prevented Gillard and Labor from gaining popular traction during the period The book gives particular attention to Gillard as a female leader and the relentless campaign of denigration that pursued her drawing conclusions about the fate of many women who assume positions of significant power in the Australian community The Gillard Governments has been produced by the ANZSOG Institute for Governance at the University of Canberra It is the eleventh in a series of books on successive Commonwealth administrations Each volume has provided a chronicle and commentary of major events policies and issues that have dominated successive administrations since 1983

Lifelong Learning for Tourism Violet V. Cuffy,David Airey,Georgios C. Papageorgiou,2017-09-07 Since the middle of the last century tourism has demonstrated almost continual growth with international tourist arrivals now recorded in excess of one billion per annum Given the global socio economic significance of tourism it is imperative to develop educational opportunities for those working in tourism related industries These opportunities should fulfil the changing needs of both industry travellers and the learners themselves While the concept of lifelong learning in the tourism industry plays an important role it has received little academic attention to date This book provides a theoretical overview of lifelong learning for tourism exploring its history practice and conceptualization It demonstrates the importance of lifelong learning for tourism from a variety of perspectives drawing on educational industry policy and socio economic insights The book explores managerial and political implications critical issues best practice examples and draws on a range of international case studies to demonstrate theory in practice Finally it offers a conceptual framework for future curriculum approaches This book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners of tourism studies hospitality business and management and international development It will also appeal to those interested in adult education vocational training professional development and pedagogy

European Products Gisela Welz,2015-09-01 On the Mediterranean island of Cyprus rural villages traditional artefacts even atmospheres and experiences are considered heritage Heritage making not only protects but also produces things people and places Since the Republic of Cyprus joined the European Union in 2004 heritage making and Europeanization are increasingly intertwined in Greek Cypriot society Against the backdrop of a long term ethnographic engagement the author argues that heritage emerges as an increasingly standardized economic resource a European product Implemented in historic preservation rural tourism culinary traditions nature protection and urban restoration projects heritage policy has become infused with transnational market regulations and neoliberal property regimes

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

The Evolution of Economic Development in Africa Francis K. Mbroh,2021-07-11 Within the theoretical framework of the trade growth and structural transformation growth nexuses the book examines the evolution of African goods and service trade in terms of value and share of global commerce relative to other regions during the period 1948-2017. It also identifies and discusses discernible changes in the composition and structure of African exports and imports between 1995 and 2015 and their implications for economic development in Africa. The study attributes Africa's laggard trade performance during the period primarily to sub-optimal macroeconomic policies and lack of bold export development policies and initiatives among other factors. It also offers an incisive discussion of several inhibitions to the structural transformation of African exports and imports including lack of finance globalization tariff and non-tariff measures in global markets. The discussion of the evolution of African trade during the period 1948-2017 based on statistics and publications of international organizations including the UNCTAD, the World Bank and the African Development Bank among others is the first of its kind in terms of scope and depth of review of African trade. The analyses of cross-border trade during 1948-2017 and their implications for Africa's economic development prospects constitute a useful reference material for academics and students of African and development studies and African and international policymakers. Parliamentary Debates India. Parliament. Rajya Sabha, 2017-08. The Palgrave Handbook on China-Europe-Africa Relations Yichao Li, Francisco José B. S. Leandro, Jorge Tavares da Silva, Carlos Rodrigues, 2024. Zusammenfassung. This handbook comprehensively covers topics in international relations with a specific focus on China-Europe-Africa relations. This triangular relationship brings substantial contribution for the formation of an emergent new international order. With China being the second largest economy and a growing power in military technology trade and cultural relations, the book provides decisive research on the key aspects that ground the country's external relations with Europe and Africa. The first three parts of the book cover issues related to strategy, economy and security with specific case studies. In addition, the fourth part not only focuses on China-Europe-Africa but also extends to chapters on multilateralism and relations with other countries, regions and economic communities. In doing so, the book also addresses topics on the Ukraine war, Covid-19, the Belt and Road Initiative, the Global Gateway and the balance of major powers. Yichao Li received her Ph.D. from the Institute for Research on Portuguese-speaking Countries, City University of Macau, China, and a Post-Doc diploma from ISCTE-IUL, Portugal. Currently, she is Assistant Research Fellow at the Institute of African Studies, Zhejiang Normal University, China. Francisco José Leandro received his Ph.D. in political science and international relations from the Catholic University of Portugal in 2010. He is currently Associate Professor with Habilitation and Deputy Director of the Institute of Global and Public Affairs, University of Macau, China, and researcher at OBSERVARE UAL and at CEI ISCTE-IUL, Portugal. Jorge Tavares da Silva is an Assistant Professor at the University of Beira Interior, Portugal, and Associate Researcher at the Public Policy Research Unit on Governance, Competitiveness and Public Policy. He is a founding member of the China Observatory, European Association for Chinese Studies, Association of Chinese Political Studies and Portuguese Political Science Association. Carlos Rodrigues is an Associate Professor at the Department of Social, Political and Territorial Sciences of the University of Aveiro, Portugal. He holds the position of head of department coordinator of the Center for Asian Studies and the Master in Chinese Studies Carlos is also an Associate Researcher at the Public Policy Research Unit on Governance Competitiveness and Public Policy

Turning Points Holger Janusch, Witold Mucha, Julia Schwanholz, Alexander Reichwein, Daniel Lorberg, 2023-12-18 Turning Points Challenges for Western Democracies in the 21st Century centers around the strikingly under researched concept of turning points and its application in political science including various theories fields and sub disciplines The chapters provide theoretical discussion and conceptual clarity by distinguishing a set of turning points at different analytical levels Based on a wide range of case studies the authors illustrate where when and how different types of turning points occur or not against the backdrop of current challenges in and for Western democracies The conceptual and empirical variety of the volume allows scholars and practitioners in policymaking to develop and apply their own frameworks when dealing with turning point dynamics

The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics Célestin Monga, Justin Yifu Lin, 2015-07-02 For a long time economic research on Africa was not seen as a profitable venture intellectually or professionally few researchers in top ranked institutions around the world chose to become experts in the field This was understandable the reputation of Africa centered economic research was not enhanced by the well known limitations of economic data across the continent Moreover development economics itself was not always fashionable and the broader discipline of economics has had its ups and downs and has been undergoing a major identity crisis because it failed to predict the Great Recession Times have changed many leading researchers including a few Nobel laureates have taken the subject of Africa and economics seriously enough to devote their expertise and creativity to it They have been amply rewarded the richness complexities and subtleties of African societies civilizations rationalities and ways of living have helped renew the humanities and the social sciences and economics in particular to the point that the continent has become the next major intellectual frontier to researchers from around the world In collecting some of the most authoritative statements about the science of economics and its concepts in the African context this lhandbook the first of two volumes opens up the diverse acuity of commentary on exciting topics and in the process challenges and stimulates the quest for knowledge Wide ranging in its scope themes language and approaches this volume explores examines and assesses economic thinking on Africa and Africa s contribution to the discipline The editors bring a set of powerful resources to this endeavor most notably a team of internationally renowned economists whose diverse viewpoints are complemented by the perspectives of philosophers political scientists and anthropologists Burundi International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2015-04-01 This paper discusses Burundi s Sixth Review Under the Extended Credit Facility ECF arrangement and Request for Extension and Augmentation of Access The macroeconomic outlook is broadly favorable driven by continued public investment and a gradual recovery in agriculture however external vulnerabilities persist owing to a protracted decline in coffee exports and high volatility of coffee prices The IMF staff supports the completion of the sixth review under the ECF and the authorities requests for an augmentation of access and extension of the current ECF arrangement through March 2016 which will be instrumental to catalyze donor support needed to address Burundi s protracted balance of payments problem
