Sharks: Conservation, Governance and Management Erika J. Techera, Natalie Klein, 2014-06-05 The key aim of this book is to explore the global conservation and management of sharks There has been a rapid decline in populations of many shark species while new science has emerged of the critical role they play in marine ecosystems However the authors show that conservation law and policy have been slow to develop with only a small number of iconic species being protected worldwide The increase in fishing impact primarily through shark finning and by catch has led to shark conservation receiving greater international attention in recent years The book explores our current knowledge and status of the law and science in relation to sharks with a particular focus on improving frameworks for their conservation and management Recent trends are analysed including shark finning bans that have been put in place in several countries the widening number of nations establishing shark sanctuaries and the growth of shark based tourism The efficacy of current listing processes for endangered species and fisheries regulations is also examined Tourism is explored as an alternative to fishing and the risks and impacts associated with this industry are analysed Contributors include leading authorities from universities and conservation organizations in North America Europe and Australia A common theme is to emphasise the importance of collaborative governance between various interest groups and the need for inter disciplinary research and management approaches that are necessary to address the decline in sharks

Development of Tourism and Travel Industry Robin Watts & Zishan Parks,2018-10-11 Nowadays senior government officials visit other countries to promote tourism in their country Because of the fact that the western capitalist world has huge amounts of capital at their disposal they are able to invest more money in the tourism industry for tourism development and as such they get huge dividends from tourism This work is an attempt in the collection of firsthand information from various areas of tourism industry draw from wide range of sources A travel agency is a private retailer or public service that provides travel and tourism related services to the public on behalf of suppliers such as activities airlines car rentals cruise lines hotels railways travel insurance and package tours In addition to dealing with ordinary tourists most travel agencies have a separate department devoted to making travel arrangements for business travelers and some travel agencies specialize in commercial and business travel only There are also travel agencies that serve as general sales agents for foreign travel companies allowing them to have offices in countries other than where their headquarters are located Travel and tourism industry has now become the largest civilian industry in the world according to statistics one out of every ten person worldwide is part of the Travel and tourism industry Travel and tourism is one of the largest and fastest growing global service industries The travel and tourism industry along with the related sectors contributing to it is expected to grow in leaps and bounds in the coming years The book is a unique research account on tourism strategies and marketing It is an excellent asset for the students scholars and expert of tourism marketing

Taiwan and China Lowell Dittmer,2017-10-03 A free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more China s relation to Taiwan has been in constant contention since the founding of the People s Republic of China in October 1949 and the creation of the defeated Kuomintang KMT exile regime on the island two months later The island s autonomous sovereignty has continually been challenged initially because of the KMT s insistence that it continue to represent not just Taiwan but all of China and later because Taiwan refused to cede sovereignty to the then dominant power that had arisen on the other side of the Taiwan Strait One thing that makes Taiwan so politically difficult and yet so intellectually fascinating is that it is not merely a security problem but a ganglion of interrelated puzzles The optimistic hope of the Ma Ying jeou administration for a new era of peace and cooperation foundered on a landslide victory by the Democratic Progressive Party which has made clear its intent to distance Taiwan from China s political embrace The Taiwanese are now waiting with bated breath as the relationship tautens Why did d tente fail and what chance does Taiwan have without it Contributors to this volume focus on three aspects of the evolving quandary nationalistic identity social economy and political strategy

The Report: Ghana 2014 Oxford Business Group,2014-12-18 The economy has a history of strong government involvement and a legacy of socialist policies in the 1960s and 1970s with statist companies involved in both energy and agriculture yet the country's market is now among the more liberalised in the region. Ghana has a strong export profile although it is somewhat dependent on commodities. It is the world's second largest exporter of cocoa behind Côte d'Ivoire and one of the continent's largest gold producers while new reserves of oil and gas have helped further expand its resource wealth. The economy saw expansion of 7.1% in 2013 while inflation reached 14.5% in March 2014. Although inflation and balance of payments remain the country's biggest economic challenges, measures have been taken to strengthen the cedi and curb inflation.

The Geo-Politics of LNG in Trinidad and Tobago and Venezuela in the 21st Century (Revised)

Daurius Figueira, 2024-03-03. The original text of this work was published in 2014 which meant that events after the death of President Hugo Chavez in Venezuela in March 2013 such as the Maduro Presidency from 2013 to 2024 and the impact of the unilateral coercive measures of the USA on the natural gas sector of Venezuela need to be included in a revised version.

Likewise the evolution of the gas production shortfall and the measures slated to mitigate this shortfall in T T including the dance with Venezuela for the supply of Venezuelan gas to the gas sector of T T which involves the grave risk of US unilateral coercive measures impacting the gas supply relationship with Venezuela with telling impact on the gas sector of T T must be analysed. This updated revision presents then the developments in the gas sectors of Venezuela and T T from 2014 to 2024 thereby analysing the pressing reality of the impact of geopolitics on the LNG sector of both T T and Venezuela in the 21st century.
