Tourism in European Microstates and Dependencies Dallen J. Timothy,2020-11-06 Tourism in European Microstates and Dependencies carefully examines the nuances and realities associated with tourism social and economic development geography and geopolitics of Europe s smallest microstates and dependencies Through case study based material the book covers the smallest states of Europe the European dependencies inside Europe and other unique territorial anomalies and unrecognized de facto states It looks at how besides small size and economy of scale one of the characteristics that connects these unique states and territories is their dependence on tourism or their desire to develop it for their socio economic well being

Positive Tourism in Africa Mucha Mkono,2019-03-20 Positive Tourism in Africa provides a crucial counter narrative to the prevailing colonial and reductionist perspective on Africa s tourism trajectory and future It offers a uniquely optimistic outlook for tourism in Africa whilst acknowledging the many challenges that African countries continue to grapple with By examining broad and localized empirical studies conceptual frameworks culturally centered paradigms and innovative methodological approaches for African contexts this book showcases the many facets of tourism in Africa that illustrate hope resilience growth and survival This volume explores themes such as community based tourism wildlife tourism tourism governance and leadership crisis recovery regional integration the role of indigenous knowledge event tourism and the impact of smart technologies It acknowledges the challenges and opportunities for growth that exist in these various contexts and explores how tourism creates value for the spectrum of its participants Including a wide selection of contributions from diverse authors many of them African this book offers an Afro centric interpretation of tourism phenomena It will be of great interest to students researchers and academics in the field of Tourism and African Studies as well as Development Studies and Geography Tourism in the City Nicola Bellini,Cecilia

Pasquinelli,2016-08-29 This book critically explores the interconnections between tourism and the contemporary city from a policy oriented standpoint combining tourism perspectives with discussion of urban models issues and challenges Research based analyses addressing managerial issues and evaluating policy implications are described and a comprehensive set of case studies is presented to demonstrate practices and policies in various urban contexts A key message is that tourism policies should be conceived as integrated urban policies that promote tourism performance as a means of fostering urban quality and the well being of local communities e g in terms of quality spaces employment accessibility innovation and learning opportunities In addition to highlighting the significance of urban tourism in relation to key urban challenges the book reflects on the risks and tensions associated with its development including the rise of anti tourism movements as a reaction to touristification cultural commodification and gentrification Attention is drawn to asymmetries in the costs and benefits of the city tourism phenomenon and the supposedly unavoidable trade off between the interests of residents and tourists is critically questioned Preparing Informal Science Educators Patricia G Patrick,2017-01-16 This book provides a diverse look at various aspects of preparing informal science educators Much has been published about the importance of preparing formal classroom educators but little has been written about the importance need and best practices for training professionals who teach in aquariums camps parks museums etc The reader will find that as a collective the chapters of the book are well related and paint a clear picture that there are varying ways to approach informal educator preparation but all are important The volume is divided into five topics Defining Informal Science Education Professional Development Designing Programs Zone of Reflexivity The Space Between Formal and Informal Educators and Public Communication The authors have written chapters for practitioners researchers and those who are interested in assessment and evaluation formal and informal educator preparation gender equity place based education professional development program design reflective practice and science communication Readers will draw meaning and usefulness from the array of professional perspectives and be stimulated to begin a quest to scaffold programs and professional development around the frameworks described in this book Travelling Servants Kathryn Walchester,2019-07-26 This book outlines the contribution made by servants to domestic and Continental travel and travel writing between 1750 and 1850 Aiming to re position British and European travel during this period as a site of work as well as leisure Kathryn Walchester provides commentary and analysis of texts by servants not addressed in current scholarship By reading texts contrapuntally this book draws attention to repeated tropes and common patterns in the ways in which servants are featured in travelogues and in so doing offers an account of alternative modes of experiencing and writing about the Home Tour and the Grand Tour

Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2014-08-04 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history

Hawai'i Sumner La Croix, 2024-05-31 Relative to the other habited places on our planet Hawai i has a very short history The Hawaiian archipelago was the last major land area on the planet to be settled with Polynesians making the long voyage just under a millennium ago Our understanding of the social political and economic changes that have unfolded since has been limited until recently by how little we knew about the first five centuries of settlement Building on new archaeological and historical research Sumner La Croix assembles here the economic history of Hawai i from the first Polynesian settlements in 1200 through US colonization the formation of statehood and to the present day He shows how the political and economic institutions that emerged and evolved in Hawai i during its three centuries of global isolation allowed an economically and culturally rich society to emerge flourish and ultimately survive annexation and colonization by the United States The story of a small open economy struggling to adapt its institutions to changes in the global economy Hawai i offers broadly instructive conclusions about economic evolution and development political institutions and native Hawaiian rights
