Unlocking
The turn signal lights flash briefly as confirmation that the vehicle has been unlocked. If the vehicle is unlocked using button ① in Fig. 4 and none of the doors or the boot lid are opened within the next 60 seconds, the vehicle is automatically locked again and the safe-securing system or anti-theft alarm system is reactivated. This function is intended to prevent the vehicle being unlocked unknowingly.

In addition, when the car is unlocked, the electrically adjustable seats and exterior mirrors move into the position assigned to the key. The stored setting of driver seat and exterior mirrors is retrieved.

Locking
The turn signal lights flash once to confirm that the vehicle has been correctly locked.

If the doors or tailgate/boot lid remain open after the vehicle has been locked, the turn signal lights do not flash and the key has been moved.

WARNING

If the car is locked from the outside and the safe-securing system is activated, there must not be any person in the car as it is then not possible to open doors or operate locking knobs. The locked doors make it more difficult for rescuers to get into the vehicle in an emergency - hazard!

Note

- Only operate the remote control when the doors and boot lid are closed and the vehicle is in your line of sight.
- To avoid the car being activated unnecessarily, press the car, the boot button ⓘ of the remote control or the trigger/unlock button ⓘ of the remote control only briefly. Should this happen, press the unlock button ⓘ of the remote control.

Signal transmitter lost

If the vehicle cannot be unlocked by actuating the remote control system, then it is possible that the code in the key and the code in the vehicle are out of synchronisation. This can occur when the buttons on the radio-operated key are actuated a number of times outside of the operation range of the equipment or the battery in the remote control has expired.

This means it is necessary to synchronise the code as follows:
- press any button on the remote control key
- pressing of the buttons means that this does not unlock with the key within one minute.
