Exploring Caste and Sexuality in Indian English Writing Lucky Issar, 2024-01-16 Exploring Caste and Sexuality in Indian English Writing Outcast Subcultures examines the ways in which caste intersects and shapes matters of desire gender religion and language It demonstrates how postcolonial upper caste theorists and fiction writers obscure caste and when they do discuss it they seem to reinforce it Dominant brahminic discourse discusses issues concerning women's rights equality justice and neocolonialism but ignores caste based discrimination and exclusion and the practice of untouchability which are everyday occurrences in Indian life To understand the brahminic obsession with caste and sexuality this book examines the works of Arundhati Roy V S Naipaul R K Narayan and M K Gandhi making a compelling argument that the freedom of choice in matters of sexuality was not unknown in medieval and ancient India If the urban elite pursues desire freely today so did the upper caste men and women of Vatsyana's time Unlike the upper caste elite caste regulated ordinary people or Dalits then just as it regulates them now which suggests how the brahminic elite in different epochs creates non normative spaces for itself without giving up caste order

Virtual Memory Homa King, 2015-10-23 In Virtual Memory Homa King traces the concept of the virtual through the philosophical works of Henri Bergson Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben to offer a new framework for thinking about film video and time based contemporary art Detaching the virtual from its contemporary associations with digitality technology simulation and speed King shows that using its original meaning which denotes a potential on the cusp of becoming provides the means to reveal the analog elements in contemporary digital art Through a queer reading of the life and work of mathematician Alan Turing and analyses of artists who use digital technologies such as Christian Marclay Agnès Varda and Victor Burgin King destabilizes the analog digital binary By treating the virtual as the expression of powers of potential and change and of historical contingency King explains how these artists transcend distinctions between disembodiment and materiality abstraction and tangibility and the unworldly and the earth bound In so doing she shows how their art speaks to durational and limit bound experience more than contemporary understandings of the virtual and digital would suggest
