Environmental Pollution and the Media Glenn D. Hook, Libby Lester, Meng Ji, Kingsley Edney, Chris G. Pope, Luli van der Does-Ishikawa, 2017-04-07 This book offers a theoretically informed empirical investigation of national media reporting and political discourse on environmental issues in Australia China and Japan It illuminates the risks harms and responsibilities associated with climate change through an analysis of pollution adopting an interdisciplinary approach drawing on both the social sciences and humanities A particular strength of the work is the detailed analysis of the data using a range of both quantitative and qualitative techniques enabling the authors to reveal in rich and compelling detail the complex relationship between risk and responsibility in the climate change discourse

The case studies of Australia China and Japan are set in the current literature as well as in the historical context of climate change in these three countries The analysis of the media discourse on the Great Barrier Reef in Australia demonstrates how the mining of coal for overseas markets has led to devastating harm to the life of the reef A critical discussion of the Chinese documentary Under the Dome shows how this medium has played a crucial role in building awareness of the harm from atmospheric pollution among the citizens shaping attitudes and promoting action The first case study of Japan elucidates how cross border atmospheric pollution from China forges a chain of responsibility for responding to climate change running from the state to society The other case study of Japan demonstrates how smart cities have emerged as a way to mitigate the risks and harms of climate change The Conclusion draws together the similarities and differences in how climate change is addressed in the three countries In all Environmental Pollution and the Media Political Discourses of Risk and Responsibility in Australia China and Japan uncovers the dynamics of the triadic relationship among risk harm and climate change in Australia China and Japan By so doing the book makes an original and timely contribution to understanding comparative media discourse and political debates on climate change International Financial Statistics, November 2015 International Monetary Fund. Statistics Dept.,2015-10-30 This November 2015 issue of International Financial Statistics is a standard source of statistics on all aspects of international and domestic finance This annual publication provides detailed data on transactions in revenue expense net acquisition of assets and liabilities other economic flows and balances of assets and liabilities of general government and its subsectors The data are compiled according to the framework of the 2014 Government Finance Statistics Manual which provides for several summary measures of government fiscal performance The country tables euro area tables and world tables provide measures of effective exchange rates compiled by the IMF s Research Department Strategy Policy and Review Department Statistics Department and area departments The General Resources Account GRA resources consist of the currencies of Fund member countries SDRs and gold Borrowings are regarded as a temporary source of funds In order to supplement its quota resources the IMF has the authority to borrow the currency of any member from any source with the consent of the issuer Memories Set in Stone—How Visitors Make Sense of Memorials Larissa Hugentobler,2025-09-30 In this open access book Larissa Hugentobler explores the world of public memorials highly visible and at times contentious media which communicate a nation s values and ideals its public memory By celebrating a selection of a nation s history the memorial landscape has long rendered marginalized groups virtually invisible This book focuses on two rare celebratory U S memorials in Washington DC dedicated to a member of a marginalized community Dr Martin Luther King Jr The author explores how visitors experience the two cultural sites including their narratives about King and the Civil Rights Movement For a holistic understanding Hugentobler combines analyses of visitor experiences on site and on Instagram with expert interviews and autoethnographies This allows for insights into the importance of celebratory memorials to individuals from marginalized communities and why those memorials matter to visitors By acknowledging that the memorial experience is not limited to the time and space of a visit this book begins to answer the urgent question of the roles of the offline and online realms in commemoration and highlights how each can contribute to a memorial landscape that is meaningful to a variety of people
