Political Ecology and Tourism Sanjay Nepal,Jarkko Saarinen,2016-02-26 Political ecology explicitly addresses the relations between the social and the natural arguing that social and environmental conditions are deeply and inextricably linked Its emphasis on the material state of nature as the outcome of political processes as well as the construction and understanding of nature itself as political is greatly relevant to tourism Very few tourism scholars have used political ecology as a lens to examine tourism centric natural resource management issues This book brings together experts in the field with a foreword from Piers Blaikie to provide a global exploration of the application of political ecology to tourism It addresses the underlying issues of power ownership and policies that determine the ways in which tourism development decisions are made and implemented Furthermore contributions document the complex array of relationships between tourism stakeholders including indigenous communities and multiple scales of potential conflicts and compromises This groundbreaking book covers 15 contributions organized around four cross cutting themes of communities and livelihoods class representation and power dispossession and displacement and environmental justice and community empowerment This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in tourism geography anthropology sociology environmental studies and natural resources management Tourism Planning and Development Jarkko

Saarinén, Christian M. Rogerson, C. Michael Hall, 2019-09-19 Academically complex and challenging to apply development and planning are increasingly relevant to the growing tourism industry This collection contains critical studies on tourism development and planning and calls for proactive holistic and responsible thinking It addresses conceptual and contemporary issues in development and planning research including political trust innovation networks sustainability moral encounters enclavisation and evolutionary economics It argues that recognition of the contextual and historical dimensions around tourism development and planning is essential to help both researchers and practitioners better understand destination and place based decision making In addition it will lead to improvements in stakeholder relations and explains how tourism best works with localities and localities with tourism This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Tourism Marketing for Small Businesses Steven Pike, 2018-02-22 This unique text focuses on the application of global marketing principles specifically for small tourism businesses around the world and provides the building block for effective and practical marketing plans Political Ecology of Tourism Mary Mostafanezhad, Roger Norum, Eric J. Shelton, Anna Thompson-Carr, 2016-01-08 Why has political ecology been assigned so little attention in tourism studies despite its broad and critical interrogation of environment and politics As the first full length treatment of a political ecology of tourism the collection addresses this lacuna and calls for the further establishment of this emerging interdisciplinary subfield Drawing on recent trends in geography anthropology and environmental and tourism studies Political Ecology of Tourism Communities Power and the Environment employs a political ecology approach to the analysis of tourism through three interrelated themes Communities and Power Conservation and Control and Development and Conflict While geographically broad in scope with chapters that span Central and South America to Africa and South Southeast and East Asia to Europe and Greenland the collection illustrates how tourism related environmental challenges are shared across prodigious geographical distances while also attending to the nuanced ways they materialize in local contexts and therefore demand the historically situated place based and multi scalar approach of political ecology This collection advances our understanding of the role of political economic and environmental concerns in tourism practice It offers readers a political ecology framework from which to address tourism related issues and themes such as development identity politics environmental subjectivities environmental degradation land and resources conflict and indigenous ecologies Finally the collection is bookended by a pair of essays from two of the most distinguished scholars working in the subfield Rosaleen Duffy foreword and James Igoe afterword This collection will be valuable reading for scholars and practitioners alike who share a critical interest in the intersection of tourism politics and the environment Tourism Dynamics in Everyday

Places Aurélie Condevaux, Maria Gravari-Barbas, Sandra Guinand, 2021-12-30 This title offers a dynamic understanding of tourism usually defined in terms of clearly circumscribed places and temporalities to grasp its changing spatial patterns The first part looks at the before everyday places such as daily markets flea markets urban neighbourhoods that have captured the tourists interest and have progressively experienced new development in their ordinary patterns The second part investigates the after former tourist spaces moving beyond the tourism sphere and becoming places of everyday life study or work Chapters explore what this means for local societies and examine this contemporary phenomenon of former tourist attractions becoming ordinary and everyday and of ordinary places beginning to take on a tourist dimension The hybridisation of tourist practices and ordinary practices is also explored through a range of international case studies and examples written by highly regarded and interdisciplinary academics This edited volume will be of great interest to upper level students academics and researchers in tourism urban studies and land use planning The Routledge Handbook of Second Home Tourism and Mobilities C. Michael Hall, Dieter Müller, 2018-04-17 Second homes have become an increasingly important component of both tourism and housing studies They can directly and indirectly contribute a significant number of domestic and international visitors to destinations and may be part of longer term retirement lifestyle and amenity migration that can have significant economic and social effects on communities and destination development This volume offers an overview of different disciplinary and methodological approaches to second homes while simultaneously providing a broad geographical reach Divided into four parts exploring governance development community and mobile second homes the book provides a contemporary account of the major issues in an area of growing international interest This timely handbook covers a wide range of dimensions from planning to the role of second homes in development and the management of their impact The international and cross disciplinary nature of the contributions will be of interest to numerous academic fields in the social sciences as well as urban and regional planners Fashion and Tourism Maria Gravari-Barbas, Nadzeya Sabatini, 2023-12-14 Fashion and tourism have common structures and similarities on many fronts Both phenomena and their operations have been through their mass cycles currently seeking alternative ways of expression and development Both industries are also important business sectors globally Scripts of Servitude Beatriz P. Lorente, 2017-10-19 This book examines how language is a central resource in transforming migrant women into transnational domestic workers Focusing on the migration of women from the Philippines to Singapore the book unpacks why and how language is embedded in the infrastructure of transnational labor migration that links migrant sending and migrant receiving countries It sheds light on the everyday lives of transnational domestic workers and how they draw on their linguistic repertoires and in particular on English as they cross geographical and social spaces By showing how the transnational mobility of labor is dependent on the selection and performance of particular assemblages of linguistic resources that index migrants as labor and not as people the book provides a powerful lens with which to examine how migration contributes to relationships of inequality and how such inequalities are produced and challenged on the terrain of language

Risk and Safety Challenges for Religious Tourism and Events Maximiliano E Korstanje, Razaq Raj, Kevin Griffin, 2018-04-25 Travellers today face many challenges from risk and safety issues Focusing in particular on risk and safety issues faced by visitors to holy sites this book looks at the unique challenges raised where annual religious festivals are commemorated with mass gatherings lasting for days and large crowds require detailed disaster management plans Beginning with a general section on risk management covering areas such as disaster management terrorism crime and security the book then delves deeper into specific issues and challenges It reviews important topics such as understanding the behaviour of crowds how to perform a risk assessment for a sacred space and travelling in what some would regard as an increasingly hostile world Mitigating risk at mass gathering events and festivals is an area that still needs further research but this book brings together current thought and provides a valuable reference for those studying religion tourism and events as well as event organizers emergency and hospital services and local authorities
