Tourism 2014 November Memorandum:

Rural and Eco-Tourism in India Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2003-06-03 In this book we will study about rural and eco tourism in India It explores sustainable practices local culture promotion and nature based tourism

Development of Tourism and Travel Industry Robin Watts & Zishan Parks, 2018-10-11 Nowadays senior government officials visit other countries to promote tourism in their country Because of the fact that the western capitalist world has huge amounts of capital at their disposal they are able to invest more money in the tourism industry for tourism development and as such they get huge dividends from tourism This work is an attempt in the collection of firsthand information from various areas of tourism industry draw from wide range of sources A travel agency is a private retailer or public service that provides travel and tourism related services to the public on behalf of suppliers such as activities airlines car rentals cruise lines hotels railways travel insurance and package tours In addition to dealing with ordinary tourists most travel agencies have a separate department devoted to making travel arrangements for business travelers and some travel agencies specialize in commercial and business travel only There are also travel agencies that serve as general sales agents for foreign travel companies allowing them to have offices in countries other than where their headquarters are located Travel and tourism industry has now become the largest civilian industry in the world according to statistics one out of every ten person worldwide is part of the Travel and tourism industry Travel and tourism is one of the largest and fastest growing global service industries The travel and tourism industry along with the related sectors contributing to it is expected to grow in leaps and bounds in the coming years The book is a unique research account on tourism strategies and marketing It is an excellent asset for the students scholars and expert of tourism marketing

Tourism, Land Grabs and Displacement Andreas Neef, 2021-05-09 This book examines the global scope of tourism related grabbing of land and other natural resources Tourism is often presented as a peaceful and benevolent sector that brings people from different cultural backgrounds together and contributes to employment poverty alleviation and global sustainable development This book sheds light on the lesser known and much darker side of tourism as it unfolds in the Global South While there is no doubt that tourism has been an engine of economic growth for many so called developing countries this has often come at the cost of widespread dispossession and displacement of Indigenous and non indigenous communities In many countries of the Global South tourism development is increasingly prioritised by governments businesses international financial institutions and donors over the legitimate land and resource rights of local people This book examines the actors drivers mechanisms discourses and impacts of tourism related land grabbing and displacement drawing on more than thirty case studies from Latin America and the Caribbean sub Saharan Africa South and Southeast Asia the Middle East and the Southwest Pacific The book provides solid grounds for an informed debate on how different actors are responsible for the adverse impacts of tourism on land rights infringements what forms of resistance have been deployed against tourism related land grabs and displacement and how those who have violated local land and resource rights can be held accountable Tourism Land Grabs and Displacement will be essential reading for students and scholars of land and resource grabbing tourism studies development studies and sustainable development more broadly as well as policymakers and practitioners working in those fields Tourism and

Gentrification in Contemporary Metropolises Maria Gravari-Barbas, Sandra Guinand, 2017-06-14 Tourism gentrification is a critical shaping force of socio economic and contemporary urban landscapes This book aims to be the first substantive text on this subject explaining the multiple and complex relationships between tourism and gentrification and their outcomes and manifestations in contemporary metropolises This is achieved by drawing on in depth case analyses addressing the different issues at stake Part I deals with the manifestations of tourism gentrification and the ways it affects urban landscapes through heritagization and urban regeneration strategies Part II looks at the correlations between tourism gentrification and culture Finally the last two parts aim to identify and examine forms and expressions of tourism gentrification distinguishing among the actors beneficiaries and victims of the phenomenon while looking at its implications for intra metropolitan territories and metropolitan governance The book approaches these issues in an innovative way by looking at a variety of metropolises in a diverse range of countries and by dealing with the different relations and management issues generated by gentrification in relation to tourism Through interdisciplinary approaches this groundbreaking text sheds light on the role tourism plays in contemporary metropolises furthering knowledge of urban tourism For these reasons it will be of particular interest to scholars and students of tourism urban studies geography anthropology and sociology OECD Tourism Trends and Policies 2016 OECD, 2016-03-09 Tourism Trends and Policies published biennially analyses tourism performance and major policy trends initiatives and reforms across 50 OECD and partner countries providing up to date tourism data and analysis Marine Transboundary Conservation and Protected Areas Peter Mackelworth, 2016-04-28 The marine environment does not naturally respect arbitrary international boundaries The establishment and management of transboundary marine protected areas therefore presents major governance challenges This book analyses a series of marine transboundary conservation initiatives embedded in varying contextual situations to examine the underlying reasons for their success or failure Utilising an adapted pathways of influence framework it provides insights into the development of marine transboundary conservation initiatives looking at the effectiveness of international rules international norms and discourse market forces and direct access to policy making Examples come from a wide range of jurisdictions including territorial seas continental shelves exclusive economic zones and areas beyond national jurisdiction Case studies include initiatives in the Coral Triangle West Africa Central America the Wadden Sea the Red Sea and the Mediterranean Sea In addition the authors assess the potential for developing wider international cooperation as a result of relationships forged through involvement within these marine transboundary conservation initiatives Cyprus and the Financial Crisis John Theodore, Jonathan Theodore, 2016-01-12 The 2012 2013

economic crisis in the Republic of Cyprus is commonly attributed to a number of factors including the exposure of Cypriot banks to over leveraged local property companies the knock on effect of the Greek government debt crisis and international credit rating agencies downgrading the Cypriot government's bond credit status What followed was unexpected and controversial a bailout on condition of a one time bank deposit levy on all uninsured deposits in the country's second largest bank the Cyprus Popular Bank and on the uninsured deposits of large proportion of the island's largest commercial bank the Bank of Cyprus Many have questioned the implications of Cyprus ties with the Russian financial system as well as the draconian and unprecedented bailout terms imposed on the Cypriot population by the Eurozone There has been little written from the Cypriot perspective on these events This book presents a study of the events surrounding the recent Cypriot Financial Crisis and its impact on the Eurozone It incorporates insights from leading protagonists in the Cypriot government and banking sectors and focuses on qualitative research to assess the events that formed the backdrop of the crisis The book analyzes the policies of many public and private institutions and presents the crisis alongside other Eurozone bailouts to compare and contextualize the ongoing issues Cyprus and the Financial Crisis also explains the political and historical backdrop of the events including the wider Cypriot experience since the 1974 invasion and the unravelling financial relationship between Cyprus Greece and Russia It incorporates the views of Cypriots from a wide and diverse spectrum and presents the resilience of the island in fighting back to beat forecasts for recovery helped by the Eldorado of gas finds off its southern shores

Management of Training and Development in Hospitality Industry Archana Acharya, Cruise Tourism in the Caribbean Martha Honey, 2019-06-17 This book explores the lessons learned from half a century of Caribbean cruise tourism one of the most popular and profitable sectors of the tourism industry The modern day cruise industry dates from the 1960s when the three major cruise lines Carnival Royal Caribbean and Norwegian set up shop in Florida and began selling winter cruises to the Caribbean targeting American retirees For geopolitical reasons the US initially excluded cruises to Cuba This changed in 2016 following the historic Obama Castro agreement to move towards diplomatic trade and travel normalization Cuba quickly became the Caribbean's fastest growing cruise destination This book considers the limited economic benefits of cruise tourism its environmental and social impacts and the effects of climate change and overtourism Based on this analysis and case studies of key Caribbean and Mediterranean destinations this book cautions against overdependence on cruise tourism and outlines reforms needed to bring more benefits and equity to Caribbean countries It will be valuable to professionals businesses development agencies NGOs and academics interested in a sustainable cruise industry and the economic well being of Caribbean island nations

Film Tourism in Asia Sangkyun Kim, Stijn Reijnders, 2017-10-13 This book focuses on film tourism the phenomenon of people visiting locations from popular film or TV series It is based on a unique Asian perspective encompassing case studies from around the pan Asian region including China Taiwan India Japan South Korea Thailand Hong Kong Indonesia and Singapore By focusing emphatically on film tourism in the non West this book offers a timely and crucial contribution to a more comprehensive understanding of the relation between film culture and place particularly in light of the increased volume of media production and consumption across Asia and the consequent film tourism destinations that are currently popping up across the Asian continent China and the Gulf Cooperation Council Countries Muhamad S. Olimat, 2016-09-21 This book examines China's relations with member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council It highlights the depth of China's ties with the region bilaterally and multilaterally on a five dimensional approach political relations trade relations energy security security cooperation and cultural relations Regarding each of these criteria the GCC countries enjoy a strategic significance to China's national security vital interests territorial integrity sovereignty regime survival and economic prosperity China has been an integral part of the political developments on the Arabian Gulf scene since the 1950s Their bilateral ties have grown steadily since the Economic Reform Era culminating in strategic partnership two decades later China and its Arab Gulf partners have embarked on an ambitious economic cooperation that includes joint ventures in oil upstreaming and downstreaming mammoth highway and railroad projects construction projects and above all strategic security coordination in reference to security threats Both sides are also engaged in a process of revival of the Silk Road within the Belt and the Road framework Sino Gulf bilateral trade relations reached 159 419 20 billion in 2014 The two sides aim to increase it to 600 billion by 2020 a goal within reach given the fact that they are concluding the China GCC Free Trade Agreement which will transform their bilateral ties The State and Cosmopolitan Responsibilities Richard Beardsworth, Garrett Wallace Brown, Richard Shapcott, 2019-06-06 This book explores the role that states might play in promoting a cosmopolitan condition as an agent of cosmopolitanism rather than an obstacle to it In doing so the book seeks to develop recent arguments in favour of locating cosmopolitan moral and political responsibility at the state level as either an alternative to or a corollary of cosmopolitanism as it is more commonly understood qua requiring transnational or global bearers of responsibility As a result the contributions in this volume see an on going role for the state but also its transformation perhaps only partially into a more cosmopolitan minded institution instead of a purely national or particularistic one It therefore makes the case that the state as a form of political community can be reconciled with various form of cosmopolitan responsibility In this way the book will address the question of how states in the present and in the future can be better bearers of cosmopolitan responsibilities China's Bilateral Relations with Its Principal Oil Suppliers George G. Eberling, 2017-10-23 This book examines China's bilateral relations with its established suppliers of crude petroleum and on occasion petroleum gas products including liquefied natural gas LNG based on a five dimensional framework political diplomatic relations economic trade relations military security relations cultural relations and petroleum energy relations A five dimensional approach is comprehensive in nature and offers a complete understanding of China's complex relationships rather than looking solely on more typical perspectives like bilateral trade security relationships or energy ties More often than not social science literature focuses on one or more aspects of China's bilateral relations which does not provide a complete picture of the complex nature of its interstate ties This book endeavors to bridge this gap and look more substantially at China's bilateral relationships with energy petroleum relations being the key aspect linking each one of them The specific bilateral relationships examined are China's relations with Angola Brazil Republic of the Congo Iran Iraq Kazakhstan Kuwait Oman Russia Saudi Arabia South Sudan Sudan United Arab Emirates and Venezuela These countries matter because their crude petroleum and petroleum gas product exports account for over 50 percent of China's annual oil consumption

Memories Set in Stone—How Visitors Make Sense of Memorials Larissa Hugentobler, 2025-09-30 In this open access book Larissa Hugentobler explores the world of public memorials highly visible and at times contentious media which communicate a nation's values and ideals its public memory By celebrating a selection of a nation's history the memorial landscape has long rendered marginalized groups virtually invisible This book focuses on two rare celebratory U S memorials in Washington DC dedicated to a member of a marginalized community Dr Martin Luther King Jr The author explores how visitors experience the two cultural sites including their narratives about King and the Civil Rights Movement For a holistic understanding Hugentobler combines analyses of visitor experiences on site and on Instagram with expert interviews and autoethnographies This allows for insights into the importance of celebratory memorials to individuals from marginalized communities and why those memorials matter to visitors By acknowledging that the memorial experience is not limited to the time and space of a visit this book begins to answer the urgent question of the roles of the offline and online realms in commemoration and highlights how each can contribute to a memorial landscape that is meaningful to a variety of people

Maldives International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2017-12-01 This 2017 Article IV Consultation highlights that Maldives economy grew by 3.9 percent in 2016 and continues to improve in 2017 on a recovery in tourism and a continued strength in construction The fiscal deficit widened in 2016 driven by lower than expected revenue and large arrears clearance despite unchanged current spending Public debt as a share of GDP rose nearly 11.5 percentage points from 2014.16 The outlook is for a strengthening recovery in the near term with low inflation loose financial conditions but with significant downside risks from a fragile fiscal and external position Growth is projected to recover in 2017 and stabilize over the medium term
