Dear Parents,

Welcome to the 2023-2024 school year at School. I am your child's intervention specialist and am so excited to get the school year started. Together, we will work together to ensure that your child has the support they need to access the rigorous educational environment.

The IEP Team

In special education, there is no "I." We have to collaborate as a team to maximize your child's academic, social, and emotional success. The IEP Team includes some or all of the following people:

- You, the parent
- The Intervention Specialist, me
- The School Principal or District Representative
- All classroom teachers who teach your child
- The speech therapist or occupational therapist if your child receives services from them
- The behavior specialist and/or school social worker

Communication

You are a very important part of your child's IEP Team. Without you, we will not be as successful as we could be. Communication is an integral part of your child's academic success. Please feel free to contact me at any time with questions, comments, or concerns. I will communicate with you regularly regarding your child's progress.

You will receive a report regarding progress toward your child's IEP goals every time report cards are distributed. If you have any questions regarding your child's progress, please contact me.

I will contact you to meet with the IEP team when your child's IEP is due to be updated. We will review your child's IEP at least once per school year. Every three years, the IEP team will perform detailed, specific assessments in order to determine how to proceed with your child's special education service plan. We will meet with you throughout this process, as well.

Homework

The Google Classroom platform is used by classroom teachers. FOR ANOTHER WAY THEY ACCESS ASSIGNMENTS Assignments and classwork are posted there with due dates and reminders. If your child has extended time as an accommodation on their IEP, they will be given this time by the general education teacher.

Please feel free to contact me by email at EMAIL or by phone at PHONE NUMBER. Thank you for partnering with us to ensure that we maximize your child's academic success!

Sincerely,
