Overcoming Educational Racism in the Community College Angela Long, 2023-07-03 Overall nearly half of all incoming community college students drop out within twelve months of enrolling with students of color and the economically disadvantaged faring far worse Given the high proportion of underserved students these colleges enroll the detrimental impact on their communities and for the national economy as a whole at a time of diversifying demographics is enormous This book addresses this urgent issue by bringing together nationally recognized researchers whose work throws light on the structural and systemic causes of student attrition as well as college presidents and leaders who have successfully implemented strategies to improve student outcomes The book is divided into five sections each devoted to a demographic group African Americans Native Americans American Indians Latino Americans Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders and Caucasian students in poverty Each section in turn comprises three chapters the first providing an up to date summary of research findings about barriers and attainments pertaining to the corresponding population the second the views of a community college president and the final chapter offering a range of models and best practices for achieving student success The analyses descriptions of cutting edge programs and recommendations for action will commend this volume to everyone concerned about equity and completion rates in the community college sector from presidents and senior administrators through faculty and student affairs leaders For educational researchers it fills blanks on data about attrition and persistence patterns of minority students attending community colleges Contributors Kenneth Atwater Glennda M Bivens Edward Bush Cara Crowley Maria Harper Marinick Joan B Holmes G Edward Hughes Lee Lambert Cynthia Lindquist Ta Sunka Wicahpi Win Star Horse Woman Angela Long Russell Lowery Hart Jamillah Moore Christopher M Mullin Brian Murphy Eduardo J Padr n Deborah A Santiago Wei Song Robert Teranishi Rowena M Tomaneng James Utterback J Luke Wood

Internationalization in Mexican Higher Education Laura

Patricia Cruz Ruiz,2016 In the era of globalization since the 1990s international cooperation has become one of the most challenging topics of debate and research in higher education This book attempts to provide scientific evidence on the debates and different types of internationalization found in higher education from a Mexican point of view It identifies German and Mexican partnership collaborations in institutions of higher education as well as the experiences of German and Mexican university personnel involved in educational projects The findings are based on qualitative research using documentary evidence semi structured expert interviews and qualitative content analysis The study encompasses three levels At the macro level internationalization of higher education is discussed in a general way but with a focus on the Mexican situation presenting a typology of prevailing types of internationalization The meso level includes a secondary analysis of official data on the bilateral relations between German and Mexican institutions of higher education The micro level presents a case study of two particular university collaborations using the experiences of those involved in both countries

Laura Patricia Cruz Ruiz born 1972 in Chiapas Mexico studied in the field of education at the Business and Pedagogical Development University UNIVDEP in Mexico City where she received her Master Degree M A in 2008 She has worked at the Mexican Secretariat of Health and Education as well as in the National Council of Science and Technology CONACyT from which in 2010 she obtained a scholarship for her doctoral studies in Germany She held a German Mexican scholarship for international capacity building in Germany from 2005 2006 In 2015 she completed her doctoral degree Dr phil at the Faculty for Philosophy and Educational Research in the field of Comparative Education at Ruhr University Bochum in Germany

Beyond Access Stephanie J. Waterman,Shelly C. Lowe,Heather J.

Shotton,2023-07-03 This book argues that two principal factors are inhibiting Native students from transitioning from school to college and from succeeding in their post secondary studies It presents models and examples of pathways to success that align with Native American students aspirations and cultural values Many attend schools that are poorly resourced where they are often discouraged from aspiring to college Many are alienated from the educational system by a lack of culturally appropriate and meaningful environment or support systems that reflect Indigenous values of community sharing honoring extended family giving back to one s community and respect for creation The contributors to this book highlight Indigenized college access programs meaning programs developed by not just for the Indigenous community and are adapted or developed for the unique Indigenous populations they serve Individual chapters cover a K 12 program to develop a Native college going culture through community engagement a crash course offered by a higher education institution to compensate for the lack of college counseling and academic advising at students schools the role of tribal colleges and universities the recruitment and retention of Native American students in STEM and nursing programs financial aid educational leadership programs to prepare Native principals superintendents and other school leaders and finally data regarding Native American college students with disabilities The chapters are interspersed with narratives from current Indigenous graduate students This is an invaluable resource for student affairs practitioners and higher education administrators wanting to understand and serve their Indigenous students

Teaching Transatlanticism Linda K Hughes,2015-02-05 The 18 chapters in this book outline conceptual approaches to the field and provide practical resources for teaching ranging from ideas for individual class sessions to full syllabi and curricular frameworks

iCEER2014-McMaster Digest Mohamed Bakr,Ahmed Elsharabasy,2014-11-18 International Conference on Engineering Education and Research Indian Education Series United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-),2014 NFL Draft 2014 Preview Nolan Nawrocki,2014-04-01 Written by longtime Pro Football Weekly lead draft analyst Nolan Nawrocki NFL Draft 2014 Preview is the most reliable and comprehensive guide to the NFL draft Nawrocki produced the draft guide under the Pro Football Weekly brand for more than a decade and the annual publication came to be regarded as the Bible of the draft by pro personnel agents and fans This draft preview provides the detailed scouting reports rankings and position by position analysis that readers have come to rely on This 2014 edition adds a Scout s Take for each player profiled providing analysis of nearly every prospect from a scout s mouth

Guardians of the Brazilian Amazon Rainforest: Environmental Organizations and Development Luiz C. Barbosa,2015-05-08 The Amazon region is the focus of intense conflict between conservationists concerned with deforestation and advocates of agro industrial development This book focuses on the contributions of environmental organizations to the preservation of Brazilian Amazonia It reveals how environmental organizations such as Greenpeace Friends of the Earth WWF and others have fought fiercely to stop deforestation in the region It documents how the history of frontier expansion and environmental struggle in the region is linked to Brazil s position in an evolving capitalist world economy It is shown how Brazil s effort to become a developed country has led successive Brazilian governments to devise development projects for Amazonia The author analyses how globalization has led to the expansion of international commodity chains in the region particularly for mineral ores soybeans and beef He shows how environmental organizations have politicized these commodity chains as weapons of conservation through boycotting certain products while other pro development groups within Brazil claim that such organizations threaten Brazil s sovereignty over its own resources

Writing Program and Writing Center Collaborations Alice Johnston Myatt,Lynée Lewis Gaillet,2016-10-27 This book demonstrates how to develop and engage in successful academic collaborations that are both practical and sustainable across campuses and within local communities Authored by experienced writing program administrators this edited collection includes a wide range of information addressing collaborative partnerships and projects theoretical explorations of collaborative praxis and strategies for sustaining collaborative initiatives Contributors offer case studies of writing program collaborations and honestly address both the challenges of academic collaboration and the hallmarks of successful partnerships

Civil Rights in Black and Brown Max Krochmal,Todd Moya,2021-11-09 2022 Best Book Award Oral History Association Hundreds of stories of activists at the front lines of the intersecting African American and Mexican American liberation struggle Not one but two civil rights movements flourished in mid twentieth century Texas and they did so in intimate conversation with one another Far from the gaze of the national media African American and Mexican American activists combated the twin caste systems of Jim Crow and Juan Crow These insurgents worked chiefly within their own racial groups yet they also looked to each other for guidance and at times came together in solidarity The movements sought more than integration and access they demanded power and justice Civil Rights in Black and Brown draws on more than 500 oral history interviews newly collected across Texas from the Panhandle to the Piney Woods and everywhere in between The testimonies speak in detail to the structure of racism in small towns and huge metropolises both the everyday grind of segregation and the haunting acts of racial violence that upheld Texas s state sanctioned systems of white supremacy Through their memories of resistance and revolution the activists reveal previously undocumented struggles for equity as well as the links Black and Chicanx organizers forged in their efforts to achieve self determination

Equity and Access to High Skills through Higher Vocational Education Elizabeth Knight,Ann-Marie Bathmaker,Gavin Moodie,Kevin Orr,Susan Webb,Leesa Wheelahan,2022-03-08 This book explores new and distinctive forms of higher vocational education across the globe and asks how the sector is changing in response to the demands of the 21st century These new forms of education respond to two key policy concerns an emphasis on high skills as a means to achieve economic competitiveness and the promise of open access for adults hitherto excluded from higher education Examining a range of geographic contexts the editors and contributors aim to address these contexts and highlight various similarities and differences in developments They locate their analyses within the various political and socio economic contexts which can make particular reforms possible and achievable in one context and almost unthinkable in another Ultimately the book promotes a critical understanding of evolving provisions of higher vocational education refusing assumptions that policy borrowing from apparently successful countries offers a straightforward model for others to adopt

50 Events That Shaped American Indian History Donna Martinez,Jennifer L. Williams Bordeaux,2016-12-05 This powerful two volume set provides an insider s perspective on American Indian experiences through engaging narrative entries about key historical events written by leading scholars in American Indian history as well as inspiring first person accounts from American Indian peoples This comprehensive two volume resource on American Indian history covers events from the time of ancient Indian civilizations in North America to recent happenings in American Indian life in the 21st century providing readers with an understanding of not only what happened to shape the American Indian experience but also how these events some of which occurred long ago continue to affect people's lives today The first section of the book focuses on history in the pre European contact period documenting the tens of thousands of years that American Indians have resided on the continent in ancient civilizations in contrast with the very short history of a few hundred years following contact with Europeans during which time tremendous changes to American Indian culture occurred The event coverage continues chronologically addressing the early Colonial period and beginning of trade with Europeans and the consequential destruction of native economies to the period of Western expansion and Indian removal in the 1800s to events of forced assimilation and later self determination in the 20th century and beyond Readers will appreciate how American Indians continue to live rich cultural social and religious lives thanks to the activism of communities organizations and individuals and perceive how their inspiring collective story of self determination and sovereignty is far from over
