

Dear Parents and Students

I cannot believe how quickly time has flown by! Today was my last day of school.

As my family is preparing to welcome a new baby into our family, you too will be welcoming someone new into our classroom family. I would officially like to welcome Mrs. Johnson to our classroom.

Mrs. Johnson is well prepared to take over in the classroom, we have met and discussed all of our daily routines and schedules. Business will continue as usual and we both expect the transition to go very smoothly.

I would like to say thank you for all of your help throughout the year. The students have also been so helpful throughout my pregnancy! I am so sad to be saying good bye to such wonderful students, but will see you all again in March!

What an exciting time for all of us! Thank you for all that you do and for welcoming such an excellent teacher with open arms to our classroom community!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Waggoner

Laverty, 2017-08-04 It wasn't supposed to happen but there were four Perfects in the same school. A Perfect is an industry insider term for a customer that does not miss a single question on their yearly standardized tests. These particular customers are eleven-year-old students at Longshore Middle School. No one could have predicted their perfect scores before the results of their 6th grade tests were reported. Mr. Price, their principal, was the first one to grasp the reason for the Longshore Turnaround: a sudden and highly publicized increase in his school's test scores. He understood it was caused by this brilliant quartet of students. Joe Meier, CEO of Universal Testing Solutions, also discovered their test results. The principal was thrilled; the CEO was terrified. As the Perfects move into their high school years, Mr. Smythson, their ambitious principal, exploits them to further his own career. Once their talents are fully exposed, they decide to take the testing into their own hands. Ag in the Classroom Notes ,1990
