This compendium provides an overview of NHRIs in eastern and southern Africa. It is guided to a large extent by the internationally agreed upon Principles Relating to the Status of National Institutions referred to as the Paris Principles. These Principles are broadly accepted as the benchmark against which the legitimacy and credibility of NHRIs can be assessed. Endorsed by the United Nations General Assembly in 1993, the Paris Principles provide NHRIs with guidelines as to their competence and responsibilities, their composition and guarantees of independence and pluralism, and their methods of operation. Additional principles relate to the status of commissions with quasi-judicial competence. The generous financial support of the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung Rule of Law for Sub-Saharan Africa Nairobi Kenya office is gratefully acknowledged.
