English as a Second Language in the Mainstream Constant Leung, Christine Davison, Bernard Mohan, 2014-07-15 Since it was first established in the 1970 s the Applied Linguistics and Language Study series has become a major force in the study of practical problems in human communication and language education Drawing extensively on empirical research and theoretical work in linguistics sociology psychology and education the series explores key issues in language acquisition and language use English as a Second Language learners are now a considerable and increasing part of the mainstream of urban schools in English speaking countries Beyond the learning of English this development raises broader questions of language as a medium of education in a multilingual multicultural environment Drawing on their experience as researchers and educators in Australia Canada and England the authors of English as a Second Language in the Mainstream present an up to date account of advances in theory and practice Their analysis of system wide provision however suggests that a truly responsive educational vision is lacking government policy is inadequate educational practices for ESL students are either underdeveloped or poorly coordinated with practices for other students and the rhetoric of reform fails to engage significantly with issues of teaching and resources The authors argue towards a more comprehensive vision which can acknowledge the relation between issues concerning ESL students and issues concerning the educational system as a whole which can coordinate reforms in ESL education with general reforms which can explicitly and systematically integrate language learning and content learning and which can build more positively on the multilingual and multicultural nature of modern education for all students

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
