Teaching Vacancies In Madang:

A Matter of Conscience General Jerry Singirok, 2022-02-24 Twenty years on from the abrupt ending of his military career Jerry Singirok has had much time to ruminate on the past Another strength of his manuscript is in my view the extent to which he does stand back and reflect often quite critically about his own decisions as well as more broadly about politics leadership corruption faith family and many other facets of public and personal life in PNG While coverage of the Sandline Affair and his military deployments to Bougainville may be action action packed it is also a thoughtful work While still largely remembered for his act of defiance and rebellion Singirok's actions also heralded the beginning of the Bougainville Peace Process The book will be of considerable interest to many readers and not just for those with a Pacific focus Biomedicine in an Unstable Place Alice Street, 2014-10-24 Biomedicine in an Unstable Place is the story of people's struggle to make biomedicine work in a public hospital in Papua New Guinea It is a story encompassing the history of hospital infrastructures as sites of colonial and postcolonial governance the simultaneous production of Papua New Guinea as a site of global medical research and public health and people's encounters with urban institutions and biomedical technologies In Papua New Guinea a century of state building has weakened already inadequate colonial infrastructures and people experience the hospital as a space of institutional medical and ontological instability In the hospital's clinics biomedical practitioners struggle amid severe resource shortages to make the diseased body visible and knowable to the clinical gaze That struggle is entangled with attempts by doctors nurses and patients to make themselves visible to external others to kin clinical experts global scientists politicians and international development workers as socially recognizable and valuable persons Here hospital infrastructures emerge as relational technologies that are fundamentally fragile but also offer crucial opportunities for making people visible and knowable in new unpredictable and powerful ways Take My Heart . . .

for Dinner Maxwell Kofman, 2016-03-17 Take My Heart for Dinner is the first novel of the Enchanted Worlds trilogy An unexpected chain of events pull Ben a high school student from a prosperous family in New York out of his habitual surrounding and throws him into a terrifying yet fascinating world filled with uncertainty and adventure The plot of the book is not just the enthralling story about the adventures of a young man who gets sucked into a whirlpool of events it is also an attempt to lift the veil of mystery from an unacquainted society digging deep into the heart of Terra Incognita This coming of age book about a young boy is intended for a wide range of readers as it explores history social and cultural customs and traditions of an ethnic minority unravelling fascinating aspects of a society unknown to civilized men Sock it to 'em

Baby Garry Cooper, Robert Hillier, 2006-05 Garry Cooper is a natural and brilliant pilot with a determination for perfection He expects only perfection from himself and others Conflict arose many times through his career when he did not experience perfection from the bureaucracy to which he was subjected On posting to the US Army 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam in 1968 he approached his assignments in the same devoted and determined manner and soon became named a legend by his

American peers General Julian J Ewell the Commander of the 9th Infantry Division and himself a legend from the Siege of Bastogne during WWII recommended Cooper for the Medal of Honour and the Distinguished Service Cross Both these are the US highest awards and as such required Australian concurrence before being awarded As Australia was not allowing its personnel to receive US Awards during the Vietnam Conflict that concurrence was not forthcoming Although Australian policy regarding foreign awards has since changed the government is still preventing Cooper from receiving these high profile awards The US however for other actions and without reference to the Australian Government has awarded Cooper the Silver Star DFC Bronze Star Purple Heart Air Medal and Army Commendation Medal In contrast our Government awarded Cooper an imperial DFC which Cooper refers to as his I was there award Today Cooper lives in retirement in Queensland He has been made an honorary member of the various US Army units by the men whose lives he saved and attends their reunions in the USA This book is the life story with the emphasis on his experiences in the Vietnam war
