Some Chapters Of My Life Story:

Who Am I? My Story and Philosophies Rolf Harms, 2017-12-18 This autobiography offers a compelling insight into the struggles and achievements experienced by this farm boy in postwar Germany. He leaves home at fifteen to seek his fortune in the unknown future. We experience his exhilarating arrival in New York City as a young teenager on his own. We follow his years at sea and share in his becoming an illegal alien hiding out in plain sight in Brooklyn, New York. The story follows an incredible career in the corporate world where he amassed an impressive knowledge of the credit card business as it develops to a multibillion dollar industry that left an indelible impact on society. Rolf's contributions to the American Express credit card expansion is reflected in the impressive promotional opportunities achieved. The book summarizes his career and highlights his passion to fight fraud on credit cards and provides an interesting insight into this field of work. Following a corporate career at AMEX, the author becomes a realtor and opens his own office. His views on real estate following the 9/11 era makes for an interesting commentary on our time. Finally, we explore the philosophical views this author has developed during his journey. His ideas on who we are or have become is reflected in the book's title Who Am I.

The Gathering, A Womanist Church Irie Lynne Session, Kamilah Hall Sharp, Jann Aldredge-Clanton, 2020-08-21 A womanist church has great power to transform church and society primarily because womanist theology centers the experiences of Black women while working for the survival and wholeness of all people and all creation. Experiences of the triple oppression of racism, sexism, and classism give Black women an epistemological insight into recognizing injustice and creating solutions that benefit all. The Gathering is unique, the only church founded and identified as womanist, applying womanist theology to the full life and worship of a church. The Gathering, a womanist faith community in Dallas, Texas, welcomes all people to partner in pursuing racial equity, LGBTQ equality, and dismantling PMS, patriarchy, misogyny, and sexism, following Jesus in liberating the oppressed and lifting up the marginalized. The Gathering, A Womanist Church, tells the story of the birth and ongoing development of a womanist faith community. This book includes personal narratives of people transformed in this community, womanist co-pastors' sermons informed by their experiences, and those of other Black women, and litanies for womanist worship.

Processing Reality John H. Buchanan, 2022-10-27 In this book, John Buchanan takes us on a journey through the early death of a parent, the ups and downs of addiction, the extraordinary revelations of psychedelic experiences, and the rewards of a sober and meaningful life. Reflecting on these experiences, the author identifies five pivotal events that drove him to seek a deeper understanding of the significance of extraordinary experiences, the nature of mind and the universe, the meaning of life, and most generally, to ask, "What is Reality?" Drawing on his wide-ranging studies and explorations, Buchanan discusses the ideas that most influenced his search and led him to conclude that transpersonal psychology and process philosophy, especially as developed by Stanislav Grof and Alfred North Whitehead, offer the most satisfying answers. He presents in some detail the essence of Grof's and Whitehead's thought as it pertains to these basic questions about life and reality so that readers can appreciate these ideas for themselves Buchanan argues that taken together process thought and transpersonal theory offer the kind of enspirited worldview capable of providing both the necessary inspiration and the intellectual understanding for confronting the great challenges facing our world

Ellai;S Book Ella June Whittaker Wolf, 2012-10-16 A five year old Meckling South Dakota farm girl climbs up on the chair next to her mother The church organ is playing a hymn and she begins to sing at the top of her lungs Heads started turning and smiles broke out all around This young girl grew up listening to great music and wonderful singing She also loved to watch and listen to the birds sing their special songs A dream was born to her to sing beautiful music also This dream revealed her on stage singing the lead role in an opera with full orchestral accompaniment and costumes This spectacle was surely unusual for one who had never seen an opera performed Young Ella June embarked on a blessed quest to reach her dream of singing opera in New York City Ellas Book The Blessed Quest describes her journey under Gods faithful blessing to be with us through it all The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940 My Bipolar Memoir of Poetry and Hope Susan Walz, 2017-07-27 My memoir shares my story of what it s like to live survive and eventually thrive with Bipolar 1 Disorder Through my unique and creative approach of using poetry and prose I take the reader with me on my journey full of pain sorrows losses suicide attempts homelessness the ups and downs of bipolar and how I learned how to cope reached recovery and became a bipolar survivor My journey shows my strength and perseverance to overcome many obstacles and struggles and is full of hope love inspiration and my faith in God My collection of poetry and prose express my pain sorrow courage resiliency inspiration and hope all at the same time Honestly and openly I share my deep and most inner thoughts in a manner that lets the reader enter inside my mind showing what it s like to live with bipolar which can be very sad lonely and painful but can also be a very positive life full of hope love and the joy of living and survival I hope my book will inspire and give hope to everyone that reads it

Self in the World Keith Hart, 2022-03-11 Eminent anthropologist Keith Hart draws on the humanities popular culture and his own experiences to help readers explore their own place in history We each embark on two life journeys one out into the world the other inward to the self With these journeys in mind anthropologist amateur economist and globetrotter Keith Hart reflects on a life of learning sharing and remembering to offer readers the means of connecting life s extremes individual and society local and global personal and impersonal dimensions of existence and explores what it is that makes us fully human This is a work of great originality Keith Hart has had an unorthodox academic career and it has liberated him in many ways from academic pieties His background in African ethnography gives him a fascinating angle on all sorts of things not least the possibility of a more African influenced global future The book is full of surprises and mind shifting observations I actually couldn t put it down Sherry B Ortner UCLA From the introduction People have many sides but I will focus here on two Each of us is a biological organism with a historical personality that together make us a unique individual But we cannot live outside society which shapes us in unfathomable ways Human beings must learn to be self-reliant not self-interested in small and large ways no one will brush your teeth for you or save you from being run over while crossing the street We each must also learn to belong to others merging personal identity in a plethora of social relations and categories Modern ideology insists that being individual and mutual is problematic The culture of capitalist societies anticipates a conflict between them Yet they are inseparable aspects of human nature
