Hi, It's Me Fawn Parker,2024-09-17 Atwood Gibson Writers Trust Fiction Prize Finalist One of Indigo's Most Anticipated Canadian Books One of the CBC's Canadian Fiction Books to Read in Fall 2024 Women Talking meets Study for Obedience in this stunning depiction of fresh grief by Fawn Parker the Giller Prize longlisted author of What We Both Know Shortly after her mother's death Fawn arrives at the farmhouse While there she will stay in her mother's bedroom in the house that is also occupied by four other women who live by an unusual set of beliefs Wrestling with longstanding compulsive and harmful behaviours as well as severe self doubt Fawn is confronted with the reality of her mother's death It is her responsibility to catalogue the furniture and possessions in the room then sell or dispose of them Instead Fawn becomes fixated on archiving her mother's writing and documents searching for signs and drawing tenuous connections to help her understand more about the enigmatic woman in the pages I am surrounded by mocking evidence of her inhabitancy of this room Quickly it is expiring Today she was alive When the day runs out that will no longer be true Tomorrow I will be able to say that yesterday she was alive at least The next day nothing She will just be dead The fact seems to be at its smallest now growing with time For now she is many things and there are many places left to find her In Hi It's Me Fawn Parker is unafraid to explore the bewildering relationship between the living and the dead Strikingly original provocative and engrossing Hi It's Me takes us into the furthest corners of grief invoking the physicality and painful embodiment of terminal illness with astonishing precision and emotional force This mesmerizing devastating novel asks Why must it be this way

My Lady's Garter ... the Last Novel Jacques Futrelle,1912 Planets of the Known Galaxy Kevin J. E. Walsh,2024-11-15 This book offers a tour of the known galaxy here defined as the region of interstellar space closest to Earth The phrase the known galaxy has a particular resonance in science fiction as it refers to the part of the Milky Way that from the perspective of a point in time centuries from now may have been explored and settled by human beings In the known galaxy there are gloomy ocean worlds illuminated by the light of exploding stars There are worlds where precious gems could be as common as pebbles There are planets eternally wandering between the stars like the Flying Dutchman There are lava worlds steam worlds hot Jupiters cold Jupiters and maybe even worlds like our Earth The purpose of the book is to begin to give this region a sense of place in the same way that Mars is now starting to be appreciated as a location rather than just a planet In doing so the book merges our current scientific knowledge of the known galaxy with speculative fiction and with older legends and myths A sense of place is the feeling that some locations have a special meaning This emotional connection arises from a combination of cultural and environmental factors that make individuals care about a particular place It is challenging to create a sense of place for distant locations that no human has visited and for which our current knowledge is limited This book attempts to take a step in this direction by dividing the known galaxy into a number of clearly described distinct regions by providing scientific descriptions of the likely environmental conditions on the known planets of these regions and by linking these planets to their literary and mythological context The book is aimed at fans of both science fact and science fiction It combines a tour of real planets outside of our solar system with tales of their fictional counterparts The combination of solid scientific facts and analysis with speculation and imagination will be appealing to readers who want to gain a feeling for these planets as places with a back story rather than just as names somewhere out there in the sky

The Influence of the Novels of Jean Giraudoux on the Hispanic Vanguard Novels of the 1920s-1930s Susan Nagel,1991 Giraudoux was a well known novelist for some twenty years before the appearance of his first drama His novels were published in Europe and North and South America and until this book no study has been made to trace the path of his influence as a novelist in the international arena

Homeland Mythology Christopher Collins,2010-11-01 Collins shows that biblical narratives have inspired a multitude of nationalist narratives myths ingeniously spun out to justify a number of decidedly unchristian policies and institutions from Indian genocide the slave trade and the exploitation of immigrant workers to Manifest Destiny imperial expansionism and most recently preemptive war
