Twas the Night Before Christmas Clement Clarke Moore, 2018-06-12 Twas the Night before Christmas A Visit from St Nicholas by Clement Clarke Moore Amid the many celebrations last Christmas Eve in various places by different persons there was one in New York City not like any other anywhere A company of men women and children went together just after the evening service in their church and standing around the tomb of the author of A Visit from St Nicholas recited together the words of the poem which we all know so well and love so dearly Dr Clement C Moore who wrote the poem never expected that he would be remembered by it If he expected to be famous at all as a writer he thought it would be because of the Hebrew Dictionary that he wrote He was born in a house near Chelsea Square New York City in 1781 and he lived there all his life It was a great big house with fireplaces in it just the house to be living in on Christmas Eve Dr Moore had children He liked writing poetry for them even more than he liked writing a Hebrew Dictionary He wrote a whole book of poems for them One year he wrote this poem which we usually call Twas the Night before Christmas to give to his children for a Christmas present They read it just after they had hung up their stockings before one of the big fireplaces in their house Afterward they learned it and sometimes recited it just as other children learn it and recite it now It was printed in a newspaper Then a magazine printed it and after a time it was printed in the school readers Later it was printed by itself with pictures Then it was translated into German French and many other languages It was even made into Braille which is the raised printing that blind children read with their fingers But never has it been given to us in so attractive a form as in this book It has happened that almost all the children in the world know this poem How few of them know any Hebrew Every Christmas Eve the young men studying to be ministers at the General Theological Seminary New York City put a holly wreath around Dr We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience A Visit from Saint Nicholas Clement Moore,2022-05-26
