Musical score for "The Rose Tree" in G major, 2/4 time. The score is for voice and piano. The lyrics are: "A rose tree, a rose tree, dark as egg blue, high, high, blue as a feather, high, high, low, low."

Our Father who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

remembrance of love in a time of war 92 year old Henry Budge defies most of his family by escaping a rehab hospital to make his way to France for the ceremonies of the 70th observance of D Day Before he dies he hopes to at last address a grief he has allowed to simmer for decades and to rekindle memories of lodie Bedier the French Resistance fighter with whom he fell in love 70 years earlier as a way of confronting his grief at losing her During his return journey he relives events of 1944 being wounded as he parachutes into Normandy falling in love with lodie who nurses him back to health fighting the Germans alongside her and her resistance companions and finally abandoning the war to rescue a group of children from the Holocaust choices that leave Henry at risk of a firing squad for desertion and lodie vulnerable to fatal condemnation from her compatriots When he arrives back in France Henry makes several shocking discoveries that shake the very foundations of the memories he s had of lodie all these years and he is left to wonder about the love he has had for lodie what rests on true memory vs what is based on countless imagined conversations over the decades Walking the Llano Shelley

Armitage,2016-02-15 When American explorers crossed the Texas Panhandle they dubbed it part of the Great American Desert A sea of grass the llano appeared empty flat and barely habitable Contemporary developments cell phone towers oil rigs and wind turbines have only added to this stereotype Yet in this lyrical ecomemoir Shelley Armitage charts a unique rediscovery of the largely unknown land a journey at once deeply personal and far reaching in its exploration of the connections between memory spirit and place Armitage begins her narrative with the intention to walk the llano from her family farm thirty meandering miles along the Middle Alamosa Creek to the Canadian River Along the way she seeks the connection between her father and one of the area's first settlers Ysabel Gurule who built his dugout on the banks of the Canadian Armitage who grew up nearby in the small town of Vega finds this act of walking inseparable from the act of listening and writing What does the land say to us she asks as she witnesses human alterations to the landscape perhaps most catastrophic the continued drainage of the land's most precious resource the Ogallala Aquifer Yet the llano's wonders persist dynamic mesas and canyons vast flora and fauna diverse wildlife rich histories Armitage recovers the voices of ancient Native and Hispano peoples their stories interwoven with her own her father's legacy her mother's decline a brother's love The llano holds not only the beauty of ecological surprises but a renewed realization of kinship in a world ever changing Reminiscent of the work of Terry Tempest Williams and John McPhee Walking the Llano is both a celebration of an oft overlooked region and a soaring testimony to the power of the landscape to draw us into greater understanding of ourselves and others by experiencing a deeper connection with the places we inhabit
