more acceptably feminine forms of expression In between the lines of their published hymns sonnets devotional texts for children and works of aesthetic theory the perceptive reader finds striking theological insights shared from a particularly female perspective These women were not only courageously interjecting their individual viewpoints into a predominantly male domain of formal study biblical hermeneutics but also intentionally supporting each other in doing so Their publications reveal they were drawn to biblical imagery of embodiment and birth to stories of the apparently weak vanquishing the tyrannical on behalf of the oppressed and to the metaphor of Christ as strengthening rock
