

A Graduation Wish For Our Son

With all our hearts, we wish for you...
That every dream you dream comes true.
We wish you time to work and play,
To find some beauty in each day.

We wish you peace and happiness,
And patience when you're feeling stressed.
And if you're just a little down,
May you have friends who come around.

We wish you laughter in your life,
And freedom from a lot of strife.
And great professors who can teach,
The kind that make you "stretch" and "reach."

We wish you four AMAZING years,
To question things, to conquer fears.
We wish you guidance from above,
We wish you joy...we wish you love.

We wish you "vision" as you go,
To help you soar, to help you grow.
And when it all is said and done,
You will succeed!...We love you, Son!

American State Senator and other leaders in the African American Community to rally voters of color to support the Democratic ticket With the help of a heavy African American turnout Robb won and the Byrd machine was crushed In 1985 just four years later Doug Wilder won the party s nomination for Lieutenant Governor against the cries of Virginia isn t ready

Rod Wills, Missy Morton, Margaret McLean, Maxine Stephenson, Roger Slee, 2014-11-26 This is a book about the struggle of many New Zealand families to have their children with learning disabilities included in local community schools It reviews the influences in the post war period that shaped the state response to the right of all children to attend school Reflections from both education policy makers and parents of that time are included The book also examines the more recent impact of neoliberal politics on education policy and the consequences experienced by families with school aged children with disabilities who may well become collateral damage in the enterprise of improving schools After examining the families experience the book asks how inclusion can be fostered in schools and classrooms Practitioners and academics present research findings that indicate alternative ways of thinking and acting that attest to more ethical and humane responses to human difference Citizens school personnel politicians and policy makers should be challenged by the tales from school
