book Ling Hon Lam gives a deeply original account of the history of emotions in Chinese literature and culture centered on the idea of emotion as space which the Chinese call emotion realm qingjing Lam traces how the emotion realm underwent significant transformations from the dreamscape to theatricality in sixteenth to eighteenth century China Whereas medieval dreamscapes delivered the subject into one illusory mood after another early modern theatricality turned the dreamer into a spectator who is no longer falling through endless oneiric layers but pausing in front of the dream Through the lens of this genealogy of emotion realms Lam remaps the Chinese histories of morals theater and knowledge production which converge at the emergence of sympathy redefined as the dissonance among the dimensions of the emotion realm pertaining to theatricality The book challenges the conventional reading of Chinese literature as premised on interior subjectivity examines historical changes in the spatial logic of performance through media and theater archaeologies and ultimately uncovers the different trajectories that brought China and the West to the convergence point of theatricality marked by self deception and mutual misreading A major rethinking of key terms in Chinese culture from a comparative perspective The Spatiality of Emotion in Early Modern China develops a new critical vocabulary to conceptualize history and existence A History of Christian Theology (Repack) Gerald Bray, 2024-10-29 A Historical Examination of Christian Theology through a Trinitarian Framework Theology is important But so is the story behind the specific doctrines that have been debated defined and refined throughout church history In this book professor Gerald Bray introduces readers to the history of Christian theology the Trinity our doctrine of God and the Bible our knowledge of God Unlike other books on the topic Bray s volume is not organized primarily by time period or distinct doctrinal categories Rather it puts theology first and history second following a Trinitarian pattern that begins with God the Father moves on to God the Son and ends with God the Holy Spirit This unique approach offers readers a more holistic understanding of the development of theology paralleling the order in which the church wrestled through challenging theological issues and controversies related to God man and salvation Accessible Aimed at non specialists not just the academic community Unique Organization Uses a Trinitarian framework to provide a more holistic understanding of the development of theology Historical Explores the Jewish background behind the development of Christian theology Written by Gerald Bray An internationally renowned historian and theologian Replaces ISBN 978 1 4335 2694 7 Exploring Richard S.
