American Political Music Danny O. Crew, 2005-12-01 Since the years before the Revolutionary War American composers have expressed their political passions and viewpoints in song Music inspired by political themes and politicians can reveal a great deal about significant people and events that have shaped our national political atmosphere American Political Music provides a state by state inventory of thousands of songs about American political personalities from 1756 through 2004 The book documents music for all political offices except president Within each state and the District of Columbia the names of elected politicians candidates for public office and other high profile individuals appear in alphabetical order with a detailed listing of published songs that relate to them Also included under each state where applicable is a miscellaneous section containing general political topics about that state everything from temperance Vote Our California Dry to the women s vote Rally Song for the Ohio Suffragist to the introduction of Boston s first public water system Cochituate Grand Quick Step Under each person or topic are listed related songs with title tune composer and lyricist publisher copyright year and information on where a particular song or its lyrics may be found i e broadsides sheet music songbooks songs published in newspapers wax cylinders piano rolls vinyl records CDs internet or mp3 files Also included is an appendix of parodied songs demonstrating among other things the durability of Battle Hymn of the Republic and Yankee Doodle as fertile and favored ground for the parodist The book also includes a list of publishers by city and indexes of song titles authors and composers politicians and subjects and offices Songwriter's Review ,1954 A Descriptive Catalogue of the Musical

Manuscript Collection of the National Library of Greece DianeH. Touliatos-Miles, 2017-07-05 The National Library of Greece Ethnike Bibliothike tes Ellados is one of the richest depositories of Byzantine musical manuscripts and is surpassed by its holdings in Greece only by the multitude of manuscripts found in the monasteries of Mount Athos In spite of being such a rich archive the National Library has never published a catalogue of its musical manuscripts not all of which are Byzantine or Greek It is the purpose of this catalogue to recover or in some instances to present for the first time the repertory of the musical sources of the library This project has been twelve years in the making for Professor Diane Touliatos involving the discovery and detailed cataloguing of all 241 Western Ancient Greek and Byzantine music manuscripts Not all of these are from Athens or modern Greece but also encompass Turkey the Balkans Italy Cyprus and parts of Western Europe This variety underlines the importance of the catalogue for identifying composers music and performance practice of different locales The catalogue includes a detailed listing of the contents as written in the original language as well as the titles of compositions and or incipits with composers modal signatures other attributions and information on performance practice Each manuscript entry includes a commentary in English indicating important highlights and its significance There is a substantive English checklist that summarizes the contents of each manuscript for non Greek readers A bibliography follows containing pertinent citations where the manuscript has been used in references There is also a glossary that defines terms for the non specialist Examples of some of the manuscripts will be photographically displayed The catalogue will enlighten musicologists and Byzantinists of the rich and varied holdings of some of the most important musical manuscripts in existence and stimulate more interest and investigation of these sources As such it will fill a major gap
