Hayford,2003 We are promised God's powerful presence when we gather with others in prayer Now you can spend time with Stormie Omartian and her longtime pastor Jack Hayford as they look at the life changing benefits and world changing effects that are natural results of praying with others Be encouraged Boldly enter into close fellowship with other believers to effect change in your world and in the larger world around you And know that when you are willing to link your heart with others before the throne of grace you touch lives and needs with the power of your Father in heaven Book jacket Through Minds' Eyes Ryan J. Hite,2013-03-27 This is a book of history ethics and philosophy It is a record of teachings passed down through the generations from the East and the West It contains the fullness of the sealed covenant established between man and the laws of the universe As we evolve as a race we take things out of our lives because we better understand who we are and what we have achieved The divine refers to the laws of nature and the universe that guide us in our everyday lives The creator that guides our everyday lives is not something that we should worship or pray to out of fear or love it is something that remains unseen and works in natural forces to explain all the events that happen on Earth It is merely a force and it is not necessary to belong to a group to experience the light The path to the light is straight and broad The creator of the universe is a divine and intellectual force by which all things came into being The sealed covenant is a pact between all of humanity to the world around us and the universal laws that guide our everyday lives to come together and love one another and come to make the world a better place for all people This shall usher in the evolution of religious traditions and humanity to a new age of prosperity Aaron's Star ,1989 Jesus Imandars and Christ Bhaktas Jonas Adelin Jørgensen,2008 The massive changes of Christianity during the 20th century raise the perennial question about its identity in a new radical form The author addresses the question of identity and asks how globalisation religious pluralism and the polycentric nature of Christianity affect Christian self identification and theological reflection First religious life and theological reflection among believers in Jesus from Muslim and Hindu background in South Asia is presented in two empirical studies Secondly the findings are analysed and interpreted within a broad theoretical framework drawing on models for syncretistic processes from history of religions cultural anthropology and Christian theology Finally the study concludes with a systematic theological perspective on the interreligious hermeneutics underlying the changes of Christianity and discusses how interreligious hermeneutics might inform missiology as well as Christian theologies of religions and how this might challenge our understanding of the church's nature and mission In conclusion it is argued that a global polycentric Christianity can be interpreted as fellowship created by the Spirit and centred on Christ God Distorted John Bishop,2013-05-21 God is not a bigger version of your earthly father When you hear the word father do you think of someone who is loving or angry Someone who is pleased with you or constantly disappointed Someone who is always available or someone who is too busy preoccupied or distant When you think of Father God what images come to mind Regardless of the type of father you grew up with or without it is likely that your view of God is influenced by the relationship you had with your father Author John Bishop wants to help you discover that God is not just like your dad Instead God is the Father revealed in Scripture where the truth is clear God is a father who is always there up close and personal fully pleased in complete control completely safe Filled with biblical insight and practical tools for reflection healing and restoration God Distorted will enable you to break free from the lies of the enemy and see your heavenly Father as He truly is
