Moran, Claudia J. Morner, 2017-11-16 This essential single volume textbook supplies a comprehensive introduction to library management that addresses all the functions of management specifically within the ever evolving modern library environment Strategic planning Facilities management Leadership ethics communication and motivation Human resources and staffing Change library development and innovation Marketing Measurement and evaluation Fiscal responsibility and control These are just some of the wide range of responsibilities and necessary skills of contemporary library managers not all of which are typically covered in detail in LIS educational programs

Now updated and expanded for its ninth edition Libraries Unlimited's Library and Information Center Management is the core management text for library information science programs. This latest text adds new information on grant writing as well as more about budgets, marketing, financial management, assessment, and evidence-based management. The authors include various real-world examples from international settings to help readers understand and conceptualize the place of the library and information center in our global world. Each chapter ends with two helpful sections that present numerous examples and opportunities to apply newly gained information: Practice Your Skills and Discussion Questions.

The LITA Guide to No- or Low-Cost Technology Tools for Libraries Breanne A. Kirsch, 2018-02-13. The LITA Guide to No or Low Cost Technology Tools for Libraries provides a practical guide on how to find and use technology tools for a variety of purposes in libraries and more broadly in education. Each topic showcases two technology tools in detail and discusses additional tools and provides examples of how librarians or educators are using them in libraries and schools. Types of tools covered are Video creation tools such as PowToon and Animaker can be used to create animated videos to tell patrons about a new service or teach students about search strategies. Screencasts includes tools like Jing or Screencast O Matic which can be used to show how to use a new library database or service. Collaboration tools including tools such as Padlet or Lino. It can be used for student collaboration or teamwork with colleagues and sharing project ideas quickly and easily. Assessment tools such as Quizizz and Kahoot allow for gamified assessment of student or patron knowledge.

Accentuate the Positive Beth R. Bernhardt, Leah H. Hinds, Katina P. Strauch, 2013. Almost one hundred presentations from the 32nd annual Charleston Library Conference held November 7-10, 2012 are included in this annual proceedings volume. Major themes of the meeting included alternative metrics for measuring impact, patron-driven acquisition, Open Access monographs, the future of university presses, and techniques for minimizing duplication and emphasizing the unique in library collections. While the Charleston meeting remains a core one for acquisitions librarians in dialog with publishers and vendors, the breadth of coverage of this volume reflects the fact that this conference is now one of the major venues for leaders in the publishing and library communities to shape strategy and prepare for the future. Almost 1,500 delegates attended the 2012 meeting, ranging from the staff of small public library systems to the CEOs of major corporations. This fully indexed, copyedited volume provides a rich source for the latest evidence-based research and lessons from practice in a range of information science fields. The contributors are leaders in the library publishing and vendor communities.
