

Literary Devices Song Assignment

Assignment: You will analyze the lyrics of a song as poetry. You will look for the use of the poetic and literary devices that you have learned in class.

Step 1: Choose a song. Be sure that it is a song that is appropriate for school (no vulgar or offensive language, no over-emphasis on violence or sexual themes). To earn maximum points, you will have to be able to identify at least five (5) poetic devices in your song.

Step 2: Song Lyrics: Write out the lyrics of your chosen song. You do not need to copy the chorus/chorus that repeats—just write it once.

Use the following format:

Song Title

Name of Performer and/or Writer of Song

Song Lyrics – with proper spacing and lines—remember this is poetry (see stanza).

Step 3: Lyrics Analysis: Identify at least five different poetic devices by labelling and highlighting the words or lines that give an example of a poetic device we have discussed in class (simile, metaphor, personification, hyperbole, sound devices like alliteration, assonance, repetition, etc.)

Step 4: Write a summary of what the song means (this is the theme). Explain using the lyrics why you are correct about the song's meaning. Think about the following questions as you write your summary:

What do the lyrics mean literally?

Do the lyrics have a figurative meaning?

Is there a deeper meaning to this song?

Could someone else interpret the song to mean something else?

Why did the songwriter write this song?

What is the listener supposed to feel when listening to this song?

What about this song makes it a good/bad song?
