Time Warner Internet Health Report:

Internet Access to the National Library of Medicine's Toxicology and Environmental Health Databases Institute of Medicine, Committee on Internet Access to the National Library of Medicine's Toxicology and Environmental Health Databases, 1998-12-05 The Internet and Health Communication Ronald E. Rice, 2001 With the popularity of the Internet more and more people are turning to their computers for health information advice support and services With its information based firmly on research The Internet and Health Communication provides an in depth analysis of the changes in human communication and health care resulting from the Internet revolution Representing a wide range of expertise the contributors provide an extensive variety of examples from the micro to the macro including information about HMO web sites Internet pharmacies and web enabled hospitals to vividly illustrate their findings and conclusions Health Statistics Daniel J. Friedman, Edward L. Hunter, R. Gibson Parrish, 2005 Health statistics have been an essential tool for improving the health of populations for centuries This book provides an account of the concepts and underpinnings of the subject giving a broad and detailed view of the sources and uses of the data and explores issues confronting the enterprise AOL & Time Warner Merger United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, 2004 Obscene Material Available Via the Internet United States. Congress. House. Committee on Commerce. Subcommittee on Telecommunications, Trade, and Consumer Protection, 2000 Faber Report David Faber, Ken Kurson, 2025-05-01 These days when CNBC's David Faber talks Wall Street listens Unlike the talking heads that populate the financial news channels Faber is a down and dirty investigative reporter For six years on CNBC's popular Squawk Box and in his own segments Faber has broken story after story Each day over one million people tune in to hear his daily report Those who know the score know that Faber is the one to listen to especially now that the market isn't doing as well as it used to Now Faber has written the smartest most innovative investment book to be published in years Like Harvard Business School's famous case study method each chapter is built around a story the story of how a stock was presented to the public Then Faber extracts clear easy to follow lessons and instructions on how readers can learn the stock's real story just as he does everyday on CNBC Readers learn not just how to pick the stocks they want to invest in but how to avoid joining the penguins lining up for big losses The Faber Report combines practical down to earth investment advice with wild accounts of investor fraud company misdeeds and famous investors and banks that have led investors astray A quantum leap beyond the usual investment books The Faber Report is essential reading for anyone who wants to profit bulls or bears Health and the New Media Linda M. Harris, 2013-11-05 This book presents an evaluation framework for assessing the impact of the new media on the health care system by juxtaposing characteristics of emerging information and communication technologies interactive seamlessly connected and user driven and health care objectives to increase access improve quality and manage costs Each chapter provides a unique set of tools and perspectives on how to harness these new media to improve individual health and the health care delivery system This innovative volume has also stimulated the creation of a Forum on Health and the New Media on the World Wide Web <http://Health.Dartmouth.edu/NewMedia> The forum offers highlights of the book as well as links to the authors and related web sites The volume is divided into six sections as follows The Overview juxtaposes characteristics of the new media interactive connected and user driven with the three criteria for health care improvement increased access improved quality and cost management It offers a New Media and Health Care matrix of criteria for building and evaluating emerging health care systems The Delivery how new media can enhance the delivery of health care includes chapters on managed care demand management and self care telemedicine for rural residents and how the Internet can be used to facilitate collaboration among health researchers and providers Health Information the life blood of health care addresses the potential for extending the traditional flow of health information from researchers to providers to reach patients who want to share in decisions about their care and the federal government's role in providing health information to the public Health Education discusses integrating multimedia health programming for public schools using networked multimedia and simulation technologies and new learning theories that promise to transform public health education and educating health providers and patients through interactive media and drama Potholes Along the Highway provides a sobering balance to otherwise rather optimistic assumptions that a national information infrastructure will be forthcoming The New Media Annotated Glossary provides computing and networking technology tools for readers who are not fluent in cyberlanguage
