Erkkilä, 2013-09-26

Global University Rankings explores the novel topic of global university rankings and their effects on higher education in Europe The contributions in this volume outline different discourses on global university rankings and explore the related changes concerning European higher education policies disciplinary traditions and higher education institutions The first global university rankings were published less than a decade ago but these policy instruments have become highly influential in shaping the approaches and institutional realities of higher education The rankings have portrayed European academic institutions in a varying light There is intense reflexivity over the figures leading to ideational changes and institutional adaptation that take surprisingly similar forms in different European countries The contributions in this book critically assess global university rankings as a policy discourse that would seem to be instrumental to higher education reform throughout Europe reference source for the latest scholarly research on the implementation of a ranking system for higher education institutions providing a thorough overview of the impacts of these rankings on educational quality Exploring the benefits and challenges of this system in a global context this book is ideally designed for academicians researchers students administrators and policy makers interested in the effects of university rankings in the education sector and beyond Sells' Dictionary of the World's Press ,1919 University Rankings Jung Cheol Shin,Robert K. Toutkoushian,Ulrich Teichler,2011-06-06 This ground breaking and exhaustive analysis of university ranking surveys scrutinizes their theoretical bases methodological issues societal impact and policy implications providing readers with a deep understanding of these controversial comparators The authors propose that university rankings are misused by policymakers and institutional leaders alike They assert that these interested parties overlook the highly problematic internal logic of ranking methodologies even as they obsess over the surveys assessment of their status The result is that institutions suffer from short termism realigning their resources to maximize their relative rankings While rankings are widely used in policy and academic discussions this is the first book to explore the theoretical and methodological issues of ranking itself It is a welcome contribution to an often highly charged debate Far from showing how to manipulate the system this collection of work by key researchers aims to enlighten interested parties Advertising and Branding: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources,2017-01-06 Effective marketing techniques are a driving force behind the success or failure of a particular product or service When utilized correctly such methods increase competitive advantage and customer engagement Advertising and Branding Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is a comprehensive reference source for the latest scholarly material on emerging technologies techniques strategies and theories for the development of advertising and branding campaigns in the modern marketplace Featuring extensive coverage across a range of topics such as customer retention brand identity and global advertising this innovative publication is ideally designed for professionals researchers academics students managers and practitioners actively involved in the marketing industry Matching Visibility and Performance Nian Cai Liu,Ying Cheng,Qi Wang,2016-11-25 The concept of world class universities WCU has increasingly gained popularity in the past two decades around the world WCU are regarded as cornerstone institutions of any academic system and imperative to develop a nation s competitiveness in the global knowledge economy The development of such universities is high on the policy agenda of various stakeholders worldwide in both developed and developing countries and regions and at both national and institutional levels to promote their global competitiveness Visibility and performance are among the most watched concepts in relation to develop WCUs but remain complicated in nature and with no agreed upon definitions Existing literature have focused on how to raise universities prestige status impact and rankings in the global and regional arena on the one hand and how to enhance universities quality efficiency effectiveness and academic output on the other However whether visibility is a legitimate indicator of performance or vice versa is yet to be answered

Matching Visibility and Performance A Standing Challenge for World Class Universities provides insights of developing academic excellence from global national and institutional perspectives and intends to stimulate discussion on how universities can be globally visible and locally engaged and how visibility and performance can be integrated and balanced in practice The Impact of Higher Education Ranking Systems on Universities Kevin Downing, Petrus Johannes

Loock, Sarah Gravett, 2021-04-04 This book written by three generations of rankings academics with considerable experience from three very different regions of the globe lifts the lid on the real impact of higher education ranking systems HERS on universities and their stakeholders It critically analyses the criteria that make up the Big Three global ranking systems and using interviews with senior administrators academics and managers discusses their impact on universities from four very different continents Higher education continues to be dominated by a reputational hierarchy of institutions that sustains and is reinforced by HERS Despite all the opinions and arguments about the legitimacy of the rankings as a construct it seems experts agree that they are here to stay The question therefore seems to be less about whether or not universities should be compared and ranked but the manner in which this is undertaken Delivering a fresh perspective on global rankings this book summarizes the development of HERS and provides a critical evaluation of the effects of HERS on four different major regions South Africa the Arab region South East Asia and Australia It will appeal to any academic student university administrator or governing body interested in or affected by global higher education ranking systems Swansea University
