The Platform Sutra Red Pine,2006-11-10 An accessible translation of Hui neng s autobiography and teachings completing the classic triumvirate of Zen Ch an Buddhist sutras It is often linked with The Heart Sutra and The Diamond Sutra to form a trio of texts that have been revered and studied for centuries However unlike the other sutras which transcribe the teachings of the Buddha himself The Platform Sutra presents the autobiography of Hui neng the controversial 6th Patriarch of Zen and his understanding of the fundamentals of a spiritual and practical life Hui neng s instruction still matters the 7th century school of Sudden Awakening that he founded survives today continuing to influence the Rinza and Soto schools of contemporary Zen Red Pine whose translations of The Heart Sutra and The Diamond Sutra have been celebrated and widely received now provides a sensitive and assured treatment of the third and final sutra of the classic triumvirate He adds remarkable commentary to a translation that combined with the full Chinese text a glossary and notes results in a Mahayana masterpiece sure to become the standard edition for students and seekers alike Higher Truth Irv Jacob,2013-12 What we need to know about meditation and mindfulness to eliminate stress in our lives is contained in this book This book follows and discusses the Satipatthana meditation scheme pronunciation sati PA tana too often neglected in the West Many additional details about Buddhism are discussed including the very nature of spirituality This as a mysterious human capacity in the way that electricity or mechanics are for most people but more like a puzzle once understood it becomes useful Reading this is a way of doing Buddhism as long as the reader continues meditation The virtue of participating in chanting and other rituals is also explained This is intended as a thorough well documented and simply written presentation Teachings about Purification Anapanasati Heart Precious Bodhicitta Realization Enlightenment and many other technical Buddhist concepts are described There is an extensive glossary and bibliography Domesticating the Dharma Richard D. McBride II,2007-10-31 Western scholarship has hitherto described the assimilation of Buddhism in Korea in terms of the importation of Sino Indian and Chinese intellectual schools This has led to an overemphasis on the scholastic understanding of Buddhism and overlooked evidence of the way Buddhism was practiced on the ground Domesticating the Dharma provides a much needed corrective to this view by presenting for the first time a descriptive analysis of the cultic practices that defined and shaped the way Buddhists in Silla Korea understood their religion from the sixth to tenth centuries Critiquing the conventional two tiered model of elite versus popular religion Richard McBride demonstrates how the eminent monks royalty and hereditary aristocrats of Silla were the primary proponents of Buddhist cults and that rich and diverse practices spread to the common people because of their influence Drawing on Buddhist hagiography traditional narratives historical anecdotes and epigraphy McBride describes the seminal role of the worship of Buddhist deities in particular the Buddha kiyamuni the future buddha Maitreya and the bodhisattva Avalokiteśvara in the domestication of the religion on the Korean peninsula and the use of imagery from the Maitreya cult to create a symbiosis between the native religious observances of Silla and those being imported from the Chinese cultural sphere He shows how in turn Buddhist imagery transformed Silla intellectually geographically and spatially to represent a Buddha land and sacred locations detailed in the Avataśaka Sūtra Huayan jing Hwa m ky ōng Emphasizing the importance of the interconnected vision of the universe described in the Avataśaka Sūtra McBride depicts the synthesis of Buddhist cults and cultic practices that flourished in Silla Korea with the practice oriented Hwa m tradition from the eighth to tenth centuries and its subsequent rise to a uniquely Korean cult of the Divine Assembly described in scripture

Zigzag Journeys in India, Or, The Antipodes of the Far East Hezekiah Butterworth, 1887 AN4 - Collection of Numbered Speeches Tomás Morales y Durán, 2024-03-31 The fourth book of the Aṅguttara Nikāya the Collection of the Numbered Discourses of the Buddha collects 783 suttas or discourses whose subject matter is centered on groups of four topics For example suttas are collected that speak of the four elements The groups of four give rise to repetitions of the type A B A and B and not A and not B or even A not A A and not A and not A and not A and not A and not A They are also employed using four of the five precepts or groups of three to which a third component is added such as belief for example Although this is a book made to be read it is of little or no interest Only some sutta may be interesting although there are none that have a theme that is not intensely explained in the Saṃyutta Nikāya Anecdotal it is worth mentioning the suttas AN 4 61 where he says that with his legitimate wealth he defends himself from the threats of such things as fire floods rulers bandits or hateful heirs and AN 4 120 which tells us that the four dangers are fire floods rulers and bandits It is not the only time that the Buddha puts the critical focus on the figure of the rulers whose functions are against all ethics since their job is precisely to steal kill and lie On the opposite side and marked with a double asterisk we find this time up to six false suttas AN 4 76 In Kusin r the Buddha says he is sure that in his Sa gha at least everyone has entered the stream nanda himself being there This is another sutta with a clear interpolation in defense of the attendant AN 4 118 Inspirational which is the precursor to a travel brochure in which the Buddha supposedly invites devotees to go on pilgrimage to the four most iconic sites including where he would die AN 4 127 Incredible things about the Tataghata some of which are incredible such as the galactic lights AN 4 129 Unbelievable things about nanda Yet another propaganda interpolation in favor of the wizard AN 4 130 Four incredible and amazing things about a wheel spinning monarch in which we again interpolate propaganda in favor of the wizard equating him to a universal monarch AN 4 187 With Vassak ra the gossip A strange sutta in which a brahmin tells a gossip to the Buddha which had a bearing on the plot of the text In short an arduous and exhaustive work of research and reconstruction to make known some texts that really do not contain anything of real interest

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
