Snapper....Confessions of a News of the World Photographer Paul Barker, 2011 The day that the closure of the News of the World was announced will forever be regarded as the saddest in the entire history of journalism. Paul Barker was one of the handful of freelance photographers used on a full time basis by the paper so when it came the news was a devastating bombshell. After over 20 years working as a photojournalist with 12 of those on the News of the World he has been uniquely placed to give an insight into what it was like to work on a Sunday tabloid. From photography tips to getting into events without a pass Snapper provides a fantastic and highly amusing window into the world of a national newspaper photographer. Rather than an expose into the phone hacking scandal that finally engulfed the paper Snapper Confessions of a News of the World Photographer is a celebration of some of its finest moments. Recounted in a personal and engaging style it is a series of often hilarious and sometimes heartbreaking anecdotes. It chronicles some of the best known as well as some of the more obscure stories covered by what many have come to regard as the world's greatest newspaper David Busch's Sony Alpha a7R III Guide to Digital Photography
