experience release from the guilt of not being enough The Husband Project is for every woman who desires to bring more joy into her marriage but just needs a little help setting a plan into action Reality Bites Back Jennifer Pozner,2010-10-19

Nearly every night on every major network unscripted but carefully crafted reality TV shows routinely glorify retrograde stereotypes that most people would assume got left behind 35 years ago In Reality Bites Back media critic Jennifer L Pozner aims a critical analytical lens at a trend most people dismiss as harmless fluff She deconstructs reality TV's twisted fairytales to demonstrate that far from being simple guilty pleasures these programs are actually guilty of fomenting gender war ideology and significantly affecting the intellectual and political development of this generation's young viewers She lays out the cultural biases promoted by reality TV about gender race class sexuality and consumerism and explores how those biases shape and reflect our cultural perceptions of who we are what we're valued for and what we should view as our place in society Smart and informative Reality Bites Back arms readers with the tools they need to understand and challenge the stereotypes reality TV reinforces and ultimately to demand accountability from the corporations responsible for this contemporary cultural attack on three decades of feminist progress Makeover TV Brenda R. Weber,2009-11-20

Examines the phenomenon of makeover television in order to explore how these shows participate in cultural debates about body modification empowerment gender roles and personal responsibility Body Shots Emily Fox-Kales,2011-04-01 How do movie star bodies and celebrity culture influence the way real girls and women feel about their own size and shape What effect can popular films have on everyday eating behavior and exercise rituals Body Shots shows how Hollywood films movie stars and celebrity media help propagate the values of an eating disordered culture that promotes constant self scrutiny and vigilance denial of appetite and overcontrol of weight in the compulsive pursuit of an eternally elusive body ideal of slenderness and fitness In a unique approach that merges the disciplines of film analysis gender studies and psychology clinical psychologist and cinema studies scholar Emily Fox Kales demonstrates how the body narratives of such Hollywood celebrities as Lindsay Lohan Gwyneth Paltrow and Oprah Winfrey and their battles with bulimia post maternal weight gain and yo yo dieting not only serve as public enactments of the same eating and weight struggles their fans endure but create a new normal which naturalizes and even valorizes the chronic body dissatisfaction and weight obsession that are established risk factors for eating disorders in women and girls Written for students of cultural and gender studies parents media literacy educators as well as film buffs everywhere this book aims to provide the moviegoer with the critical tools necessary to develop a resistant gaze at Hollywood productions and make healthier choices among the many viewing screens of our super mediated world Fashion's Transnational Inequalities Anna-Mari Almila,Serkan Delice,2023-10-13 This book explores the evolving relationship between fashion and transnational capitalism It examines the inequalities and injustices that this relationship embodies and engenders within the interconnected domains of production consumption labour and environmental ethics It also considers national and transnational ways of evading resisting and dismantling those inequalities and injustices An accessible and compelling read Fashion s Transnational Inequalities will appeal to students and scholars of fashion sociology politics cultural studies and all those interested in deconstructing the inequalities that exist in the fashion industry globally
