China's Policy towards the South China Sea Lingqun Li, 2018-02-19 This book provides an explanation of Chinese policy towards the South China Sea and argues that this has been sculpted by the changing dynamics of the law of the sea in conjunction with regional geopolitical flux The past few decades have witnessed a bifurcated trend in China's management of territorial disputes Over the years while China gradually calmed and settled most land border disputes with its neighbors disputes on the ocean frontier continued to simmer in a seething cauldron China's Policy towards the South China Sea attributes the distinctive path of China's approach to maritime disputes to a unique factor the law of the sea LOS as the rules of the road in the ocean By deconstructing the concept of sovereignty and treating the LOS as an evolving regime the book examines how the changing dynamics of the LOS regime have complicated and reshaped the nature and content of sovereign disputes in the ocean regime as well as the options of settlement Applying the findings to the South China Sea case the author traces the learning curve on which China has embarked to comprehend the complexity of the dispute accordingly and finds that it is the dynamic interaction of the law of the sea regime and the geopolitical conditions that has driven the evolution of China's South China Sea policy This book will be of great interest to students of Chinese and Asian politics international law international relations and security studies      Swansea University Sam Blaxland, 2020-06 Swansea University Campus and Community in a Post War World 1945 2020 marks Swansea University's centenary It is a study of post Second World War academic and social change in Britain and its universities as well as an exploration of shifts in youth culture and the way in which higher education institutions have interacted with people and organisations in their regions It covers a range of important themes and topics including architectural developments international scholars the changing behaviours of students protest and politics and the multi layered relationships that are formed between academics young people and the wider communities of which they are a part Unlike most institutional histories it takes a bottom up approach and focuses on the thoughts feelings and behaviours of people like students and non academic staff who are normally sidelined in such accounts As it does so it utilises a large collection of oral history testimonies collected specifically for this book and throughout it explores how formative paradoxical and unexpected university life can be Thomas Cook European Timetable ,2004 Legislative Calendar United States. United States Code 2012 Edition Supplement IV , Framing Convergence with the Global Legal Order Elaine Fahey, 2020-10-15 This interdisciplinary book explores the concept of convergence of the EU with the global legal order It captures the actions law making and practice of the EU as a cutting edge actor in the world promoting convergence against the grain In a dynamic twist the book uses methodology to reflect upon some of the most dramatically changing dimensions of current global affairs Questions explored include who and what are the subjects and objects of convergence as to the EU and the world How do court centric and less court centric approaches differ Can we use political science and international relations as service tools Four key themes are probed framing EU convergence global trade against convergence the EU as the exceptional internationalist and positioning convergence through methodology Drowning by Accident Elizabeth Meinhard, 2022-02-15 Drowning By Accident explains why it is so easy to drown where accidents happen and how to save lives by early rescue and resuscitation More than 600 people die by drowning in Britain every year Swimming is promoted as a particularly safe form of exercise so that swimmers forget or ignore the dangers of frigid lakes swollen rivers incoming tides or outgoing rip currents Drowning accidents take place because we don't recognise water as a hostile environment We overestimate the strength and endurance of our bodies and underestimate the power and deceptiveness of water Year after year victims lose their lives in typical drowning accidents often sinking so quickly and silently that nearby family friends and onlookers fail to notice the tragedy taking place close beside them Babies drown in baths Toddlers drown in garden ponds School children fall off rafts Teenagers strike too far from the shore Pensioners wade into rivers to save their dogs Victims often die within minutes of sinking beneath the surface A quarter of those who reach hospital alive will also die while others survive with severe permanent brain damage This means that it is vitally important for parents grandparents teachers lifeguards and lawmakers to recognise the risks and prevent drowning accidents before they take place The Mango
