Last May 2019 CPA board examination has 1,699 out of 10,319 passed the Certified Public Accountant Licensure Examination this May 2019. It seems that the passing rate from the previous CPA board examination is getting lower and lower.

I know, becoming a Certified Public Account is one of your dreams and you're dreaming me it many years ago. Don't be intimidated by the last CPA board examination results. You don't have to take a look at which you don't have control. Focus on the things you can and do something to achieve it.

Do your best in achieving your dreams, don't lose hope. No one can help you now, except your determination and perseverance to do it. After the extensive preparations, here are the tips that you should know before taking the CPA board exam.

Tips to Pass CPA Board Exam?

Make sure to read these tips before taking the CPA board examination. I know that most percentage of your success does not depend on others but it is only "YOU". Make a promise to yourself that "YOU" will become a CPA in October 2019.

Tip# 1: Make sure to Have Contact

Going to a place without contact is a dangerous decision to do. Having contact to place will help you to make your stay peaceful and comfortable.

Tip# 2: Don't Bring To Many Books

For some students who are taking the review, they will bring all their books to a review. Is that a wise decision to make? Well, the answer is not. It is unwise to bring all those books in the review because it could only add to your stress.

Also, most of those books are read during college and you have many notes on it. However, if you really want to bring it, make sure that those books will help you to understand not to give you more reasons not to study. Finally, bringing those books might cost you in traveling back and forth. I'm telling you, you can't read many books during your review.
