

The background of the book cover is a composite image. The top half shows a night cityscape with lights and a dark sky. The middle section features a large array of solar panels, likely on a rooftop or in a field. The bottom half is dominated by a series of concentric, glowing red and orange arcs that resemble a stylized representation of a particle detector or a magnetic field. The title 'Practice in Physics' is written in a large, white, serif font, with 'fourth edition' in a smaller, red, sans-serif font below it.
