Smile The Smile Series English Edition:

Muhenda (English version) Wilson Miguel, After the success and also the breaking of the law of the black lives matter movement all blacks around the world were expelled forced to return to Africa creating a political division between blacks and whites But the explosion of global warming and the rupture of the ozone layer grants world dominion and power over the only kingdom on the planet that holds natural resources the kingdom of Muhenda in Africa A place where white people were never welcome However an agent of the intelligence of the whites manages to enter Muhenda The king of Muhenda is murdered and the white man is sentenced to death for the crime and as retaliation all the remaining whites were made slaves Years later a dictator and tyrant empire rises dominating all of Africa inflicting terror oppression inequality and pain Led by the new king of Muhenda and the brother of the deceased the emperor Luther Nankela That situation forces Sowety a young African warrior queen and Selena a young white slave to stand up step up and fight against the new system Two different women two enemy races one almost impossible gold freedom

Carroll, 2025-09-23 The first major publication on Baltimore based painter Jerrell Gibbs whose contemplative portraits of Black sitters thrum with a vivid sense of place and reflect the complexity and emotional depth of everyday Black life This book captures a prolific period of self examination and observation for contemporary artist Jerrell Gibbs b 1988 Known for his luminously rendered expressionistic oil paintings Gibbs uses the figure as a dynamic and recurring motif to explore themes of Black masculinity fatherhood legacy and remembrance Drawing from archival family photographs Gibbs emphasizes placement size and proportion blending intimate mark making with bold painterly gestures By complicating and subverting visual stereotypes Gibbs engages deeply with the materiality of painting offering tender emotionally evocative portrayals of Black men as husbands fathers brothers and sons These allegorical and autobiographical works underscore quiet moments of joy sorrow and beauty as vital components of Black life Additionally commissioned portraits of such figures as Elijah Cummings and August Wilson are juxtaposed with allegorical figures from Gibbs s dreams reflecting his growth as an artist and individual Gibbs s work offers a fresh approach to painting the human form following in the footsteps of other Black figurative painters Kerry James Marshall Henry Taylor and Amy Sherald
