

Module 2 – Establishing the SMSF

- The basic conditions to qualify as a fund are set out in s17A of the SIS Act.
- Broadly, a fund is a superannuation fund with fewer than 6 members (other than single member funds) where:
  - Each trustee (or, where the trustee is a body corporate, each director) is a member of the fund;
  - Each member of the fund is a trustee or, where the trustee is a body corporate, a director of the body corporate;
  - No member of the fund is an “employee” of another member of the fund, unless those members are related; and
  - No trustee of the fund receives remuneration for his or her services. Note that s 17B of the SIS Act enables trustees and directors of funds to be remunerated for non-trustee duties or services, subject to certain Conditions.
- A person is disqualified under s120(2) SIS Act if they:
  - Have been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty
  - Have been subject to a civil penalty order under the super laws
  - Are insolvent under administration (including being an undischarged bankrupt)
  - Have been disqualified by a court or regulator (for example, by us or APRA).
- s 126K of the SIS Act, a disqualified person must not be a trustee of a self-managed super fund.
- s17A(3)(c) of the SIS Act sets out that where a member of the fund is under legal age and does not have a legal representative, the parent of the member must be a trustee of the fund in their place.

Module 3 – Contribution

- Superannuation contributions can be divided into two types:
  - Concessional (before-tax) and
  - Non-concessional (after-tax).
- Both types are subject to a contributions ‘cap’ ie limit.
- The 2020/2021 legislated rules impose an annual cap of $100,000 for one year (1 July through to 30 June) for non-concessional contributions
- For the 2020/2021 year, there is an annual concessional contributions cap of $27,500 all ages
- The minimum an employer must pay is called the super guarantee (SG):
  - the SG is currently 9.5% of an employee’s ordinary time earnings
- Exceeding the concessional cap: Since 1 July 2013, if a member exceed a member concessional cap, the excess concessional contributions count towards a member’s assessable income and are subject to their marginal tax rate plus an interest charge

Important Calculations

- Calculating SG component
  - $9.5\% \times \text{salary} = \text{super guarantee component}$
  - $109.5\% \times \text{salary} = \text{total amount received from employer ie salary and SG}$
- Financial year concessional cap $27,500 (ignore any carry-over from previous years)
- Let’s say salary of $100,000
  - $9.5\% \times $100,000 = $9,500$  super guarantee component
- How much can be salary sacrificed?
  - $\text{Current cap} - \text{SG} = $27,500 - $9,500 = $18,000$
